Half of U. S. Renters Face 5% Boost October 1

Automatic Increase Proposed

Final Decision Up to Congress

WASHINGTON — (UP) — More than half of the nation's rent-paying families would face a five per cent rent boost Oct. 1 if Congress approves a Senate "automatic increase" proposal.

The rent increase formula was worked out by a Senate subcommittee in an effort to give landlords a "fair return." It drew fire from some quarters and praise from others as the Senate Banking committee prepared for final action on the proposal today.

The rent bill, which would extend controls for 15 months, is slated for debate on the Senate floor tomorrow.

Under the Senate measure, approved yesterday by a banking subcommittee, rent ceilings would be increased five per cent every six months — beginning Oct. 1—up to a total of 15 per cent. The five per cent would be based on June 30, 1947 rents.

But the hikes would apply only on units where tenants have not signed so-called "voluntary" leases for 15 per cent rises or rents have not been raised by general increases for the area.

MAXIMUM 15%

The maximum increase still would be 15 per cent. But it would apply on top of any "hardship" rises granted the landlord by the housing expediter. And the landlord still could apply for more.

A spokesman for the housing expediter estimated that more than half the nation's tenants would be hit by the first increase—fewer by the others.

Sen. Claude Pepper, D., Fla., said he's "against any automatic increase because it would be legislating inflation as well as hardship."

But Chairman John J. Sparkman, D., Ala., of the subcommittee and Banking Chairman Burnet R. Maybank, D., S. C., defended the provision as a recognition that landlords are entitled to some increases.

Present controls expire March 31. The House passed a 15-month extension bill on Tuesday, but wrote in a clause to let state and local governments decontrol their areas if they choose.

Hint More Coal Strife

PITTSBURGH — (UP) — A contract dispute between John L. Lewis and mine operators strengthened steel industry predictions today of more trouble in the nation's coal fields by summer.

Lewis and the operators were embroiled in a dispute over the legality of a two-week "memorial" walkout of 463,000 coal miners, which already has seriously whittled fuel supplies in homes, hospitals and schools in eastern Pennsylvania.

The operators told Lewis the four-day-old walkout was a "clear" violation of their contract with the United Mine Workers. Lewis retorted that the intimidation was "gratuitously offensive and untrue."

Commenting on the walkout, Iron Age, authoritative steel industry weekly, held the view that "Lewis is laying the groundwork for more surprises in July." The UMW chief and the coal operators are scheduled to open negotiations for a new contract in May. The current agreement expires in June.

Ask U. N. to Act

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(INS)—The government of Bolivia asked the United Nations today to place the case of Hungarian Cardinal Mindszenty on the agenda of the General assembly, which meets April 5.

Tenants Get Break; Rents Slashed $5

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (UP) — Some found it hard to believe, but a landlord today voluntarily lowered the monthly rent $5 on his 54 apartments.

The apartments, five-room-and basement units, are owned by corporations headed by L. Leroy Highbaugh sr., and associations.

Highbaugh, when asked about the cut, said "nobody suggested the rent cut; we did it on our own."

Crash Kills Soldier On Furlough

Fredericktown Youth Victim of Mishap

FREDERICKTOWN — An 18-year-old soldier, home on furlough from Camp Campbell, Ky., was fatally injured last night in a head-on auto crash in a bridge on State Route 95 two miles northeast of here.

He was a passenger in a car driven by his brother. Drivers of both cars suffered only minor facial lacerations.

The victim was Pvt. Conrad Franklin Kinney, 18, of the 11th Air Borne division, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kinney, of Fredericktown, R. D. 3, on a 30-day leave.

State highway patrolmen said the accident occurred at 6 p. m. Pvt. Kinney died of head injuries at 9:40 p. m., in the M. and S. hospital in Mt. Vernon.

The victim was riding in a car with his brother, Donald Eugene, 21, also of Fredericktown, R. D. 3. State patrolmen identified the driver of the other car as Leroy Claude Prushing, 29, of Fredericktown, R. D. 3, who was riding alone.

Pt. Kinney is survived by another brother, Brice, of Fredericktown. The body is at the family residence but will be taken to the Bollinger funeral home here for services at 2 p. m. Saturday with Rev. M. M. Scott, Palmyra Christian church pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Forest cemetery here.

Pvt. Kinney enlisted in the Army on April 7, 1948 and was to report back to Camp Campbell on April 7 at the conclusion of his 30-day leave.

Not An O'Hara In Ohara On St. Pat's Day

OHARA, Japan — (UP) — Shure there was singing and dancing here in Ohara today But there was nary a note from the concertina, nor an Irishman in sight to wear the green.

The Ohara celebrants were holding a spring religious festival and questioning revealed that they never had heard of the saint who drove the snakes from Ireland.

Mayor Tsuchiya Yukimasa said there wasn't an O'Hara living in Ohara.

Flay Conflict In Department

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A sharply-divided Hoover commission today urged major changes in the Interior department to tighten efficiency and eliminate "disastrously wasteful conflict."

In a report to Congress studded with "dissents," "abstentions," and "further views" by individual members, the 12-man commission proposed a vast expansion of the department to include all "major public works" projects.

If a similar proposal offered in 1924 had been followed then, the government reorganization group declared, "hundreds of millions of dollars would have been saved to the public over these years." Now, it added, "it is a complete necessity."

Sees Greek Victory

WASHINGTON — (INS) — President Truman declared today that the communist-led Greek guerrilla movement is "approaching bankruptcy".

'Tis the Wearing of the Green

Sure and the Irish Take Over!

By GEORGE COMINOS

This is the day when "everyone wants to be a McSomething." Teddy Roosevelt said that.

And if you'll look around you'll find more people than Irishmen wearing the traditional green in honor of the man who drove the snakes out of Ireland.

And if you look around some more you'll find that some Irishmen aren't wearing green.

P. S. Carroll, clerk of the board of county commissioners, didn't have a green tie on today. "I'm partial to brown," he admitted. He admitted, too, that he doesn't have a green tie.

John Dalton, deputy auditor, didn't have a green tie either, but it wasn't because he doesn't have one. "I forgot," he said.

James Carrigan not only had a green tie, but a shamrock, "direct from Ireland." Carrigan said there won't be any celebration at the Knights of Columbus ball because there is a mission at the St. Peter's church during this week.

Elsewhere in the nation, the Irishmen were parading and preparing for banquets tonight. In New York city, 80,000 Irishmen paraded up Fifth avenue while 1,000,000 or so more stood on the curbs and cheered.

Once upon a time in Mansfield, there used to be a banquet, with a notable speaker brought in, according to Carroll.

He belonged to the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick when that or-

Cold to Stay Another Day

More Snow Glazes Streets, Highways

The weatherman offered no word of encouragement today to Mansfielders who are getting weary of the snow and cold.

The forecaster said today and tonight would be cloudy Colder weather is due tonight. Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and continued cold.

Mansfield was one of the coldest spots in the state again this morning when the temperature fell to 18 at 6:30 a. m. By noon, however, the temperature had risen to 30.

A new snowfall brought out snowshovels early this morning and made driving difficult, although less than an inch of snow fell in the city.

Police reported a number of minor traffic accidents due to slippery city streets. City trucks began working on streets at 9 p. m. yesterday. Twelve men manned four gravel trucks this morning. No salt was used because the snow was too deep for it to be effective.

All county roads were open this morning, but trucks were out early spreading cinders on slippery spots.

The state highway patrol warned motorists roads around Mansfield are slippery in spots.

Urge State Park To Honor Admiral

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Ohio should acquire and dedicate a state park to Admiral Ernest J. King, U. S. chief of World War II naval operations.

That's what a delegation from Lorain, Admiral King's hometown, told the Senate Conservation committee last night. They testified for a bill to create a 500-acre state park in the Beaver creek area of Lorain county.

An Irish Argument

Eire, Ulster Offer Opinions on Union

The ancient argument between the green of Eire and the orange of Ulster was whipped up today in fine old Irish fashion by interviews with Eamon de Valera, former premier of Eire, and Sir Basil Stanlake Brooke, premier of Northern Ireland. Here are the interviews:

By EAMON DE VALERA

DUBLIN —(INS)— "Do chlanna gael, beatha agus slainte"—to the Irish race, long life and good health!

On St. Patrick's Day men and women of our race, wherever they may be throughout the world, turn their eyes with affection to the homeland, the loved island of Ireland.

That homeland, a unity by nature and one preserved through many centuries of history, they will see today cut in two, in defiance of the expressed will of more than three-fourths of the Irish people and in violation of the avowed principle of national self-determination.

Until this wrong is undone, the Irish nation's efforts for freedom must remain frustrated; Ireland will still be unable to take her rightful place amongst the nations, or to contribute her full share towards securing the peace and the well-being of mankind.

All who with us honor St. Patrick, and remember with gratitude how much the Irish people and the cause of Christianity owe to his labors and his devotion, will remember also that Armagh, where he established his primatial see, and Antrim and Down, hallowed by his footsteps, are today severed from the rest of the national territory and occupied by foreign troops.

The national festival must then be for each one of us an occasion for solemn resolve never to rest until partition is ended.

By THOMAS C. WATSON

LONDON —(INS)— Sir Basil Stanlake Brooke, prime minister of northern Ireland is convinced that a "dissimilar outlook on life" makes union of Eire and Ulster impossible.

In the following question-and-answer interview, the 60-year-old head of Ulster makes clear his strong sentiments.

Q. Why is the notion of union with the twenty-six counties of the south of Ireland so "repulsive" to your followers in the six northern counties?

A.—For the same reason that northern Ireland refused to leave the United Kingdom when the Irish Free State was set up more than a quarter of a century ago. North and South are opposites; their fundamental loyalties are essentially different; their political ideals are irreconcilable; their dissimilar outlook on life makes assimilation impossible.

It was clear to the people of the north in 1920, when southern Ireland quitted the United Kingdom, that that was the first step to repudiation of the crown and complete severance from the British empire. Allegiance to the crown is genuine and deep-seated in northern Ireland.

Q.—Do you agree with Mr. De Valera that the two counties of Armagh and Fermanagh should belong to southern Ireland?

A.—No. The claim is unfounded. Northern Ireland (for which Ulster is a popular and well understood synonym) is a constitutional unit, one and indivisible. It was created by statute.

Reveal Plight of 13-Year-Old Father

PAW PAW, MICH. — (AP) — In a two-room tarpaper shack behind the city dump, an increasingly desperate 13-year-old father waited today for something — anything — to happen.

Crowded into the tiny house are Carl Harvey Blake jr., his wife Winifred, 16, their three-week-old son and eight in-laws.

Carl is jobless. There is no prospect of work despite all his efforts.

Icy March winds seep through the cardboard-lined walls. The main diet for all the family is bread and potatoes.

"We eat 30 loaves a week," said Leo Singleton, 43, the father-in-law. His $20 weekly earnings from a junkyard job buy little more.

Winifred recently tore the baby's four ragged diapers in half to make them go farther. She has sacrificed her own food to buy him canned milk.

But in spite of everything, she and Carl want above all else to remain together.

Officials were silent on the question of whether Carl would be sent back to school.

Carl quit the sixth grade last year, prior to his marriage, and doesn't want to return.

But even though his plight had gained nationwide publicity, his chances of getting a job were dim because Michigan law forbids issuance of a child labor permit to youths under 14.

Line Leak Delays Water Job

Pump Moving Held Up

A leak in the water line from the new Clear Fork pumping station to Mansfield today delayed moving of equipment to the new high-lift pumping station south of the city.

Workmen had been scheduled tomorrow to move a pump from the Maxwell station to the new station at the foot of Cook road. The leak will delay the moving until March 25, city officials said.

The operation will require about four days, city spokesmen said.

The leak in the blank end of the line, near the new station, was expected to be located and repaired today, but Sanitary Engineer B. V. BeVier said it had held up the program and the city would have to wait an additional week "because it is necessary that this operation move like clock-work"

PLANNED TEST

He said the leak was discovered when engineers let water in the line from the reservoir yesterday. This was done so that the water would be immediately available for the pump upon installation.

When installed the pump will draw more water from wells now being used than has previously been possible, Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison said.

Garrison added that the pump must be moved during the low consumption week-end period when large industrial plants are not in operation. This is done so the level of the reservoir can be maintained.

Gunmen Slay Missionary

Masked Assassins Shoot American

SEOUL — (INS) — Mrs. Ethel Underwood, a Presbyterian missionary in Korea for 25 years, was fatally shot during a women's tea party in her Seoul home today.

Two masked assassins fired two shots from an American carbine in what authorities described as a political slaying.

The missionary was born Ethel Van Wagner in Kingston, Mich.

The hooded gunmen opened fire as she came to the front door to investigate the noise of a houseboy scuffling with one of the assassins.

Mrs. Underwood died of a perforated liver on the way to a hospital. Another shot fired at an unidentified woman missed i' mark.

A speaker at the party was scheduled to talk against communism. The unidentified slayers escaped.

The killing occurred while Mrs. Underwood and her husband were giving a tea party. The husband, Horace Underwood, is a teacher at Chosen (Korean) university.

File Second Indictment

NEW YORK — (INS) — Judith Coplon, 27-year-old Barnard graduate at liberty under $20,000 bail on one espionage charge, today faced rearrest by the FBI following her second indictment by a District of Columbia grand jury.

In a surprise action yesterday the Washington jury charged Miss Coplon with stealing confidential data from files of the Department of Justice where she worked as a confidential aide.

The indictment charges she subsequently turned over these data to Valentin A. Gubitchev, Soviet citizen-engineer on the U. N. staff.

Gubitchev and Miss Coplon have both been indicted in New York and are scheduled for trial on April 1 on an espionage conspiracy charge. Gubitchev is still in the federal house of detention in lieu of $100,000 bail.

Watson Order Revealed In Lodge Letter

Banning of operation of slot machines in Ohio lodges of the Fraternal Order of Eagles took a curious twist in Mansfield today. It also revealed the huge "take" from the gambling devices of $750 to $1,000 per week locally.

The ban was issued yesterday by DeVere Watson, grand worthy president of the organization, at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Over the stamped signature of this same DeVere Watson, Mansfield Aerie 336, FOE, was recently ordered to install "devices" (slots) or lose its permit.

And because the local officers and trustees declined to remove locally owned slots and install the ones demanded in the letter over Watson's signature, all were forced to resign.

Yesterday Watson said he wanted the Eagles to conduct their own investigation of practices of the lodge. This statement followed quickly on the heels of a demand by Rep. Edward De Chant, Lorain, that the state probe organization and practices of fraternal groups.

Information on Mansfield operations was supplied by A. J. Eglesberg, former secretary of Mansfield Aerie 336, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Eglesberg said that he and officers and trustees of the Mansfield Eagles lodge resigned Jan. 12 rather than accept an order from "grand lodge headquarters" to put in slot machines, to be supplied by an Ohio lodge official, who would collect a percentage of the "take" from the one-armed bandits.

The former secretary, who held the post of secretary-manager of the local club from 1930 until his resignation, revealed also that slot machine profits in the Eagles club averaged from $750 to $1,000 per week during years of operation of the machines here.

He said that under various arrangements, 75 to 80 per cent of the total slots profits was paid over to the local lodge and the remainder went to the owner of the machines.

SEVEN DISPLAYED

Eglesberg said that during the years of his operation in the Eagles club here, the lodge never actually owned any of its machines. He added that ordinarily, seven machines were on display at the Eagles—three for nickel customers, two for 10-cent players, and two for those who desired to spend 25 cents a whirl.

Warn More Layoffs Due

ST. LOUIS — (UP) — Wabash railroad officials warned that they may be forced to start laying off 8,500 workers today unless 3,500 men who run the trains end their strike immediately.

The striking engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen put off a decision to end their walkout while the chiefs of the four unions met in Cleveland for a second day to discuss the issues.

In Washington, the White House was expected to announce the names of members of a special fact-finding board appointed by President Truman to investigate the dispute.

The strike was beginning to affect industries which ship over the Wabash or rely on its facilities for supplies.

A Ford motor company spokesman here said that the Lincoln-Mercury assembly plant in Robertson, a St. Louis suburb, may lay off some of its 1,500 workers.

Anti-Gambling Law Approved

PORTSMOUTH — (INS) — The city of Portsmouth apparently was slated today to put on the books the first anti-gambling law in its history.

City council voted unanimously last night to bring in such legislation at its next regular meeting.

The decision followed a recommendation by Scioto county Common Pleas Court Judge Vernon Smith, and put Portsmouth in line with half a dozen other Ohio communities which recently have started anti-gambling crusades.

Filibuster Tactics Now Hit Italy

Reds Talk To Block Alliance

(By United Press)

Italian communists resorted today to the congressional tactics of capitalist United States in an attempt to stave off legislative approval of Italy's adherence to the North Atlantic Security pact.

They staged an all-night filibuster in the chamber of deputies that still was going strong at noon today Rome time. They were trying to delay indefinitely the virtually certain vote of approval of the government's decision to participate in the Atlantic pact.

The filibuster stretched the continuous debate on the pact to 20 hours, the longest session in Italian parliamentary history. The 55th communist took the floor at noon and about 100 more communists and their left-wing socialist allies were waiting their turn to speak.

Other foreign news included:

Canberra, Australia — Acting Attorney-General Nicholas McKenna was authorized by the government to prosecute communist leader Lance Sharkey for sedition for saying Australian workers would welcome soviet troops if they came to Australia "in pursuit of an aggressor."

New Delhi — Home Minister Sardel Patel said in parliament that the Indian government would have no alternative than to suppress the communist party if it persists in "exploiting every situation in order to cause chaos."

Tokyo — Gen. Douglas MacArthur issued a statement denying that he intends to retire next fall.

Nanking — A nationalist military commander said Chinese communist commanders are rushing 100,000 Manchurian troops south to the Yangtze basin.

Liquor Fee Boost Fails

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Governor Lausche's local government aid program reeled under its severest setback today as the Senate failed to act on an administration bill to increase all liquor license fees by 50 per cent.

Certain defeat was averted only by the parliamentary maneuver of postponing a floor vote after the bill was scheduled for action.

Even an hour-long personal appearance by Lausche before the Democratic majority caucus on the measure failed to muster succicient votes. The Democrats have 19 of the Senate's 33 members, but four and possibly five of them indicated in the caucus they would vote against the bill.

Since the 14 Republicans are solidly against the bill on the ground it would impose a new tax, this would leave only 14 or 15 votes for the bill, with 17 needed for passage.

EPSILON IOTA AND TAU CHAPTERS TO RECEIVE

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Members to Honor International Representative of Group Friday.

THE EPSILON IOTA and Epsilon Tau chapters of Beta Sigma Phi sorority are entertaining with an informal reception on Friday evening in the ballroom of the Mansfield-Leland hotel at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Rachel Stoddard Ruff, international representative from the sorority's headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., will be their guest of honor.

Mrs. Paul Lantz and Mrs. Frank Hoffer, presidents of the two chapters, are in charge of the program which will center around Beta Sigma Phi activities.

Beta Sigma Phi, international sorority, is a cultural and social organization, noted for its encouragement of interest in the creative arts and sponsors, annually, contests for its members in short-story writing, verse and song-writing.

Other unusual features are vacation tours conducted by a special counsellor. This summer the members will "ramble" to Hawaii. Members also pursue a planned cultural and educational program.

Many women of note throughout the world serve the organization as international honorary members. Ohio's honorary member is Mrs. Harold H. Burton, wife of Justice Burton of the United States Supreme Court. The Burton's home is in Cleveland where Mr. Burton served three terms as mayor of that city. He was later elected twice as U. S. senator from Ohio. Mrs. Burton has been a city sponsor in both Cleveland and Washington, D. C., for the sorority.

Beta Sigma Phi has a membership of 75,000 in 3000 chapters in the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, England and Scotland and China. Ohio has 200 chapters.

More than one hundred guests will be entertained by the group on Friday night when an interesting and educational program will be the highlight of the reception.

Mothers' Club Fetes Five On Birthdays

Thirteen members of the Mothers' Club of the American Legion Auxiliary met Wednesday at the Legion home for a covered dish dinner and all day sewing. Guests in attendance were Mrs. Dwight McCullough, president of the Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Elizabeth Harter.

The birthdays of five members were celebrated. These were for women having birthdays in January, February and March. Those honored were Mrs. E. E. Long, Mrs. Arminta Eller, Mrs. John C. Schneider, Mrs. Mary Lister and Mrs. Daisy Andrews.

A large table was decorated with green and yellow streamers and centered with a large cake with five candles.

Mrs. Clara Ruddock, chairman, presided for the business session at which time the club voted to send $5 for jumping ropes to the Children's Home in Xenia. The sewing period was spent in quilting.

On April 6 the club will meet at the Legion home for a covered dish dinner.

Blue Star Mothers Discuss Tag Day

Twenty-nine members and one guest attended the meeting of the Blue Star Mothers at the YMCA last evening.

During the short business session, tag day was discussed. It was decided to observe it two days, April 6 and 9, this year. There will be a special meeting March 29 for future plans for tag day.

Twelve members, having birthdays in the first quarter of the year, were entertained at the close of the session. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at a late hour.

Afternoon Guild Sews at Church

The Ladies of the Afternoon Guild of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church met Wednesday morning at the church to sew for world service. A poke lunch was served at noon.

At 2 p. m. the program opened with group singing after which films were shown by Rev. J. C. Melchert. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. Clarence Garver, Mrs. Oscar Schaller, Mrs. Marjorie Russell, Mrs. Ina Hegnauer, Miss Anna Hunter and Mrs. Florence Kelser.

Sappho Club Has Unusual Entertainment

The Sappho club meeting yesterday was the pay-off on a contest between the literary and musical members of the club. The contest was based on attendance records with the musical members winning. The literary members, therefore, had to entertain the winners.

The first part of the entertainment took place at the home of Mrs. J. H. Finefrock, where canapes and fruit punch were served. Mrs. S. H. Campbell and Miss Mary Proctor were assistant hostesses. An arrangement of green sweetpeas and carnations decorated the serving table. The literary members served themselves with the best silver and china while the guests, the musical members, were served with paper cups and a long tin ladle for the punch.

The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. R. R. Martin and was all at the expense of the musical members, as was all succeeding entertainment.

The club then adjourned to Mrs. J. L. Steven's home, where the salad course was served. The guest table was centered with onions, carrot tops, beet tops and celery and the hostess table had as centerpiece a lovely bouquet of green and white carnations. Serving as associate hostesses were Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Mrs J. G. Wallace, Mrs. F. E. Rudd, Mrs. W. S. Boals. Mrs. T. D. Brown and Mrs. J. H. Bristor.

Skits were given by Mrs. Charles Sheriff and Mrs. Paul Eliot. The final course, dessert, was served at the home of Mrs. J. M. Johnston, where the same preference was given to the literary hostesses. Mrs R. J. Hammer entertained the group, again at the expense of the guests.

The next meeting will be held March 30 at the Women's club.

Beta Chapter Given Topic

The Beta chapter of Mansfield Sorosis met yesterday at the Women's Club with fourteen members and one guest, Miss June Long of Dayton, present.

After a brief business meeting conducted by the chapter president, Mrs Stuart Baird, the program was turned over to Mrs Alden Lash who spoke on "Rehabilitation in Japan."

She said "Upon the revival of Japan depends the best gamble for stability in the Orient. The situation has become too urgent for complacency. The United States must maintain the practical balance that is vital to keep this vast region within the Western orbit."

On April 6 the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Fankhauser, West Third street. The speaker is to be Mrs. C. E. DeWald, whose topic is "Walk With Me Through Palestine."

DINNER MEETING

Twenty-four members of the National Secretaries met last evening at the Mansfield Leland hotel for a dinner meeting and program Guest speaker was C. J. Kalbfleisch. A brief business session was held following the dinner. The group will meet on April 19 at the Leland hotel for a dinner. Miss Lois Addlesperger served as hostess chairman.

CHARITY CLUB SEWS

Mrs. Ruth Grimm was hostess to 15 members of the Charity Club Tuesday at the Women's Club. The day was spent in sewing for the Mansfield General Hospital and the Richland County Children's Home. Luncheon was served at noon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edward Loughridge, 521 Woodland road, March 29.

Philomathian Officers Take Over Duties

The Philomathian club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Tom Siegenthaler, Woodhill road. The first part of the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. M. K. Leggett, who then turned the meeting over to the new president, Mrs. Merrill Manz jr.

The new vice-president is Mrs. Gilbert Dobson; secretary, Miss Helen Hartman, and treasurer, Mrs. Oliver Henkel. Mrs. N. S. White gave a paper entitled, "Retailing Glamorized." The next meeting will be the last meeting of the season on March 30. It will be a dessert bridge at the home of Mrs. Oliver Henkel, Millsboro road.

Installation Held By Unit

Unit Three, Nu Phi Mu, met for a St. Patrick's party at the home of Miss Joan McDevitt, 73 Western avenue, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Donald Krichbaum, unit advisor, read the installation service for the new officers and presented each with the sorority rose.

The theme of the party was carried out in green and white decorations with the traditional "Irish Snake" indicating each girl's place. The tables were centered with tapers and green flags. Following the luncheon a wedding gift was presented to Mrs. Krichbaum from the unit. The former Mary Mihailoff, Mrs. Krichbaum was wed on March 6.

The next meeting will be held April 5 at the home of Miss Mary Ellen Shocker, Arthur avenue.

Guest Night Held At Church Parlors

The Women's Missionary society of St. Luke's Lutheran church held guest night, Monday, in the church parlors. The Lenten mission study class was also held. Miss Martha McFarland was the speaker of the evening, reviewing "China, Twilight or Dawn" by Frank Price.

Devotions were led by Mrs. J. Clarke Custer. The members brought their quarterly offering. Those who served as hostesses were Mrs. George Faust, Miss Clara Miller, Mrs. Homer Miller and Mrs. Rufus Esselburn.

The next meeting was announced for April 11. Mrs. Philip Wolfe will be in charge of the program and the hostesses will be Mrs. Harry Krumm and Miss Laura Krumm.

Miss Imogene Backus Feted With Pre-Nuptial Showers

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES of Miss Imogene Backus, bride-elect of Henry Ruhl, continue to fete the popular young woman with pre-nuptial showers. The couple will be wed Saturday, March 26, at the home of the bride-to-be's sister, Mrs. Charles Pentz; Michigan avenue. Later a reception will be held at the Mansfield Leland hotel.

Business associates of Miss Backus honored her with a miscellaneous shower and party recently at the home of Mrs. Joseph Nixon, 46 Douglas avenue, with 16 in attendance. Bridge was the diversion and when scores were tallied the honoree received the awards. At the close of the evening refreshments were served with appointments in pink and green. Roses were arranged attractively on the mantel.

On Tuesday evening Miss Backus and Mr. Ruhl were feted by the choir of the First Methodist church at the church parlors, following choir rehearsal. Twenty were in attendance. Games were in charge of Miss Betty Gorsuch. After group singing refreshments were served and gifts presented to the couple in a large decorated umbrella.

Recently Mrs. T. H. Carroll of Akron, a close friend of the bride-elect, entertained for her at the Pentz home. The hostess had made a dainty organdy apron for the honoree, and had the guests put their autograph on it.

Games were the diversion of the evening afterwhich a buffet supper was served. The table was centered with a tiered bridal centerpiece which was topped with a bride and bridegroom. Pink and white candelaora was used on either side.

Epworth Guild Entertained

Mrs. Olan LaRue, 123 Vennum avenue, was hostess to the Epworth Guild, March 14. Mrs. R. F. Stull, Mrs. W. B. Huber and Mrs. Homer Swift were associate hostesses. There were thirty-three members and two guests, Mrs. I. A. LaRue and Mrs. Charles Sutton, present.

Mrs. Dale Richardson was welcomed as a new member. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. John Cookman whose topic was, "Using a Victory Garden to Better Our Lives". Mrs. Lester Perry conducted the buiness meeting after which she turned the evening over to Mrs. Paul Bush. Mr. Bush entertained the group with colored pictures of his vacation trips to Florida and the Rocky mountains.

DISTRICT MEETING

The Fifth district of the First Lutheran church was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Marcia Powell with Mrs Gerald Cox as associate hostess. Devotions were given by Mrs. Harold Simmons. Thirteen were present and welcomed a new member, Mrs. Todd Strohmenger.

Moose Women Honor Guest From Cleveland

The Women of the Moose met last night at the Moose home with 105 members present. The business was conducted by Mrs. Michael Campanelli, the senior regent. Mrs. Abbie Linden of Cleveland, associate regent of Ohio for the Women of the Moose, was an official visitor and the speaker for the evening.

The newly organized Brownie Scout Troop No. 79, with their leader, Mrs. Stanley Marietta, and their assistant leaders, Mrs. Robert Price and Mrs. Louis Peterson, were at this meeting and an American flag and staff was presented to them by the ritual committee. The staff holder was presented to them from the Moosehaven committee.

This being social service chapter night, the program was in charge of Mrs. Clyde Butler, the chairman. A class of 21 candidates was initiated in the honor of Mrs. Linden. Mrs. Peter Herold and Mrs. Linden were presented with gifts from the committee. Accordion duet was given by Miss Marlene Gaubatz and Miss Carol Newton. A tap dance by Miss Harlean Laughlin.

Mrs. William Keller, who was a delegate to the state sponsorship conference in Columbus last Sunday, gave a report of the meeting. Mrs. Campanelli, Mrs. Cloyd Wickoff, junior regent; Mrs. Earl Beilstein and Mrs. Effie Keltner also attended this meeting.

Twenty-one members were given birthday remembrances for the month of March.

Mrs. Paul Koozer was the winner of the chapter prize.

Refreshments were served in the Fiesta room by the ritual committee, green and white appointments being used.

The chapter will meet on April 6 for a closed business session.

Haircut, Talk Anger Patron, Barber Killed In Argument

GLASGOW, KY. — (INS) — A 60-year-old Glasgow barber died as the result of a bullet wound inflicted by a gun-toting customer who didn't like the conservation dispensed with his haircut.

The victim of the armed patron's wrath was Cloyed F. Cook, who was struck in the back when three shots were fired yesterday afternoon through the glass door of the Jewell Furlong barbershop on the Glasgow public square.

Barren county Sheriff B. Y. Spillman said murder charges could be lodged against Mitchell Taylor, a 42-year-old well driller, who was being held on lesser charges of malicious shooting as a result of the incident.

The sheriff related that Taylor complained in the barber shop before the shooting about the way Furlong had cut his hair. After he registered his protest, Cook, an employe, commented:

"It's good enough for a blockhead like you."

The sheriff said Taylor told him it was Cook's remark that prompted the shooting. After the gunfire, Taylor drove to his home where he was later arrested by officers. Police said he admitted firing two other shots into the shop which he said were designed to frighten the proprietor.

Missing 7 Years, Man Ruled Dead

WARREN — (AP) — Thomas J. Mango was declared legally dead yesterday by Probate Judge Sydney W. Jones. Mango, former Niles resident charged in the fatal shooting of Marty Flask in 1939, disappeared after the shooting and hasn't been located for more than seven years.

Mango's wife, Helen, sought the court ruling to sell some property in Niles.

Bock Is Back For Buckeyes

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Bock beer — the traditional harbinger of spring and good fellowship — returned to Ohio in all its glory today after a long wartime absence.

A weak and half-way Bock returned immediately after the war but due to the scarcity of grains it was not the mellow and rich brew hailed by connoisseurs and plain beer drinkers.

Anton Dodel, brewmaster for the Franklin Brewing company here, explained this was the first year proper materials could be obtained for the full-bodied brew

Ohio State Baseball Squad To Leave On Southern Jaunt

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Ohio State's baseball team leaves Columbus Sunday traveling to the southwest where the Buckeyes face Texas university and Texas A. & M. in two three-game series.

Coach Floyd Stahl plans to cut his squad of 25 down into a traveling contingent of 17, but is waiting for a look at the eligibility lists before announcing the roster.

The scarlet and gray will carry five hurlers, headed by big Pete Perini, ace of last year's mound staff. Stahl will select four more moundsmen among Dick Hess, Gene Brown, Bob Radinger, Al Hasselo and Dick Houck. All but Hasselo and Houck are veteran holdovers.

Ohio State will take along two catchers and four outfielders. Norb Ranz, hard-hitting backstop rates the inside track, but Vic Kauffman, Bob Mann and Bob Montebello may take over should Ranz fail.

Alex Verdova, Ray Gebhart and Mario Giacomelli, all seasoned performers, are virtually assured of their outfield berths, while Stahl is counting on sophomore Al Goebel for some extra base slugging.

Capt. Fred Taylor, first sacker, and shortstop Bob Weygant make up the nucleus of the Buckeye infield. Infield replacements are at a premium since Bill Berhnard and Al Aerni signed professional baseball contracts.

Heading the list of likely candidates are Duck Moran, outfielder - infielder; Ted Burnst, utility infielder; Chuck Owens, regular junior varsity short stop in 1948; Vic Janosek and Carl Parrill.

VanBuren Gets 4 Season Pact

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Steven Van Buren, holder of three national football league records, today signed a four-year contract with the champion Philadelphia Eagles.

Terms were not disclosed.

The ex-Louisiana state star halfback joined the Eagles in 1944. Since that time he's led the NFL three times in ground-gaining. In '47 he set an all-time record of 1,008 yards gained in one season.

Van Buren also holds the record for most touchdowns in one year, 18, set in 1945 and for the most times carried, 217, set in 1947.

New Coach Takes Over at Wooster

WOOSTER — (UP) — Philip L. Shipe, new football coach at the College of Wooster, will come here Monday to meet candidates for the 1949 grid squad and make plans for spring practice.

Shipe comes to Wooster from Defiance high school, where his football teams won 35 and lost 11 in five seasons.

New London Admitted To Sport League

CASTALIA — New London was admitted to the Firelands High School athletic league at a meeting of loop officials here last night.

New London will compete in basketball next year and in football in 1951. Only four of the eight schools now in the loop play the gridiron sport. A track schedule is being considered for this spring.

PLAYS INDEPENDENTLY

Officially New London has been playing independently for several seasons since the Huron county league is not an official circuit, but merely a round-robin schedule with a gentlemen's agreement to declare a champion.

In the Firelands league is Margaretta, Huron, Berlin Heights, Monroeville, Milan, Norwalk St. Paul's, Vermillion and New London. The teams will play each other once during next basketball season as well as in a carnival planned at the opening of the campaign.

J. S. Beringtoon of Monroeville is president of the league, W. P. Furlong, Milan, is secretary and J. L. Gehardt, Vermillion, secretary-treasurer, Coach Harry Brownson and Superintendent D. E. Good represented New London at last night's meeting.

New London was recently given a citation from county and district tournament officials for sportsmanship on the basketball floor.

Ransom Takes Top Money In Rich Seminole Tourney

PALM BEACH — (UP) — Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., pocketed $1,500 today for topping the professional division in the rich Seminole country club tournament but three of his pro rivals drew some really heavy sugar by sharing the society event's rich best ball prizes.

Ransom won first PGA money with a 36-hole total of 137 after shooting a five-under-par 67 yesterday.

Pros Skip Alexander of Southern Pines, N. C., Ed Furgol of Royal Oak, Mich., and Dave Douglas of Wilmington, Del., aided by their socialite partners, ended the best ball play in a three-team deadlock with handicap scores of 128. The three pros collected $1,100 and undisclosed "tips" from their rich teammates, plus shares in the rich Calcutta pool, which contained at least $75,000. The three winning teams split the pool with Seminole country club members who held tickets on them.

Dillard to Run In K. of C. Event

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Eight of last year's winners are back to defend their titles in the annual Knights of Columbus indoor track meet tomorrow night.

Harrison Dillard, the Baldwin-Wallace hurdles specialist who won the Olympic sprint title, will attempt to garner his fourth straight win in the 45-yard high hurdles.

George Guida of Villanova will attempt his third straight victory in the 600 yard run.

CONSTRUCTION OF BATH HOUSE, SIX PRIVY STRUCTURES AND TWO WELL PLATFORMS
Office of the Board of Directors
Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District
New Philadelphia, Ohio.
February 24, 1949

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary, Board of Directors, Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District, New Philadelphia, Ohio, until ten o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, March 28, 1949, for the construction and appurtenant work of the following units:

(1) Bath house at Atwood Lake Park located in Monroe Township, Carroll County, Ohio, approximately two miles east of New Cumberland, Ohio.

(2) Double unit privy in the picnic area of Atwood Lake Park located in Warren Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio.

(3) Double unit privy and well platform in the camping area of Atwood Lake Park located in Warren Townto township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio.

(4) Double unit privy at the Clendening Lake Boat Livery located in Washington Township, Harrison County, Ohio, approximately four miles northeast of Freeport, Ohio.

(5) Double unit privy and storage room and a well platform in the Charles Mill Lake picnic area, located in Mifflin Township, Ashland County, Ohio, approximately one-half mile southwest of Mifflin, Ohio.

(6) Double unit privy at the Seneca Lake Boat Livery located in Richland Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, approximately one and one-half miles east of Senecaville, Ohio.

(7) Double unit privy in Seneca Lake Park located in Seneca Township, Noble County, Ohio, approximately three and one-half miles southeast of Senecaville, Ohio.

Alternate proposals will be considered as follows:

Alternate A—Wherein the bidder proposes to do the entire work described as one job consisting of seven units.

Alternate B—Wherein the bidder may bid on one or more single units with the knowledge that he may be awarded any one or any combination of units included in this proposal.

Proposals must be on the blank forms furnished by the Board and must be accompanied by a certified check for not less than 10 per cent of the aggregate amount of the bid, figured on the basis of the estimated quantities and the unit prices bid, such check to be drawn to the order of the Treasurer of Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District, as a guarantee that the bidder, if awarded a contract, will, within ten days after the contract is delivered to him for that purpose, execute the same, and furnish surety bond for the faithful performance of the contract, in the sum of 50 per cent of the contract price; said contract and bond to be on the standard forms which have been adopted by the Board. In the event the bidder submits both proposal A and B, the certified check shall be based on 10 per cent of the aggregate amount of proposal A.

If any bidder, to whom an award has been made, shall fail to execute the contract or to furnish satisfactory bond within the time hereinbefore specified, or as extended by the Board, the award shall thereupon become void, in which case the proceeds of the certified check shall become the property of the District, and the contract may be awarded to the next lowest or best bidder; and such next lowest or best bidder shall thereupon assume the contract, as if he were the party to whom the award was first made.

Each bidder must, in his proposal, present satisfactory evidence that he has been engaged in constructing works of the general character covered by his proposal, and that he is fully prepared, and has the necessary capital, to begin the work promptly, and to conduct it as required by the contract and specifications. Proposals not containing such evidence will not be recognized as bids.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, and to waive any technical defects, as the interests of the District may require.

Drawings, specifications, proposal blanks, and other information may be obtained on application to the Chief Engineer, Muskingum Watershed Conservancy District, New Philadelphia, Ohio, at whose office drawings and other data may be inspected. A charge of $5.00 a set is made for contract drawings and specifications, which charge will not be refunded.

BRYCE C. BROWNING
Secretary.

3—In Memoriam

BEAL

TREASURED memories of our dear Pal, Elizabeth, who was called to Higher Service on March 17th, 1948.

In our home she is fondly remembered.
Sweet memories cling round her dear name.
Those who loved her in life sincerely
Still love her in death just the same.

Not one day forgotten by Hilda and John Wilson,
Hamilton, Ont., Canada

BEAL

IN LOVING MEMORY of our dear friend, Elizabeth, who departed this life on March 17th, 1948.

Always a smile instead of a frown,
Always a hand, when one was down,
Always so thoughtful, true and kind.
What beautiful memories she left behind.
Loved and respected wherever she went
She toiled so hard for those she loved
Then left them to remember.

Mabel and Wm. Shaw,
Hamilton, Ont., Canada.

Will Sacrifice

If sold this week. This home must be sold right away so owner can close option on four bedroom home. This six room frame home is located in the Park area off W. Fourth St. This home was remodeled just a year ago. The plans were drawn by one of Mansfield's ablest architects and as a result we have a most attractive eye-appealing interior plus the best use made of all available space. A picture window was added to the sun room, extra windows added in the dining room, and wooden casement windows installed in breakfast nook. This adds up to twice the light and sunshine that is available in the average home. Don't worry about curtains because these windows are equipped with new drapes on cornice-covered traverse rods, all of which goes with the home. The multi-cupboarded kitchen and tile bath are both new with all new plumbing fixtures. New lighting fixtures throughout the house. Excellent hardwood floors up and down with the best grade of wall-to-wall carpeting down. The price has been reduced from $14,000 to $12,600 and terms can be arranged if you so desire.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Who says
THERE'S NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN?

We don't—because we've just installed a new John Bean VISUALINER in our Steering Service Department. It's the first machine we ever saw that can make driving safer by harnessing beams of light. Checks the wheel alignment on an automobile quick-as-a-flash and even projects a picture on a screen so that you can SEE FOR YOURSELF if your car needs attention.

But you don't have to take our word for it. Drive in and let the VISUALINER show you why your car is steering hard. After all, SEEING IS BELIEVING and you can see for yourself whether your automobile is right for safe, economical, high-speed driving.

Sparks Fly As Lawyers Irk Judge

Verbal Slugfest Halts Red Trial

NEW YORK — (INS) — Selection of a jury to try 11 American communist leaders on charges of conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government by force was delayed yesterday by heated argument between opposing counsel.

The tentative jury of nine women and three men was excused from the courtroom while the talkfest raged.

During the argument Federal Judge Harold R. Medina rebuked three defense attorneys.

The controversy revolved around a document which the government charged Defense Attorney George W. Crockett jr., of Detroit, with removing from its possession.

Crockett, who was absent from court Tuesday said that upon reading the record of Tuesday's proceedings he got the impression that the prosecution had accused him of conduct unbecoming to a lawyer.

"Never in my 15 years at the bar have I done anything unbecoming," declared Crockett.

"Your conduct in this trial has not been irreproachable," Judge Medina interjected.

Defense Attorney Richard Gladstein of San Francisco protested the judge's remark.

Judge Medina said to Gladstein: "Your conduct has been even worse."

This prompted Attorney Harry Sacher to get into the debate.

Judge Medina cut Sacher short, declaring his remarks were "offensive" in that they conveyed "insinuations which attack my honor."

Seek Lower Steel Price

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Whether the steelmakers can long resist the pressure for price reduction being exerted by both large and small consumers is debatable, the magazine Steel reported today.

"Consumer pressure for downward adjustments in steel prices is mounting in step with shrinking demand," the trade journal said.

However, according to Steel, except for the fading out of premium prices and sharp reductions in grey market quotations, nothing has yet developed to indicate any industry-wide retreat from established schedules.

"In fact, said the magazine, "some sellers are considering upward adjustments in certain extras to compensate for continued rising production cost."

The consumer pressure has given rise to a degree of uneasiness with respect to prices that the steelmakers haven't experienced since before the war, said Steel. And should the hoped-for spring upturn in business fail to materialize, added the magazine, some sellers may be tempted to give in.

In 1894 the first carload of apples grown in Washington were shipped to eastern states. Today, the state produces an annual crop of approximately 32,000,000 boxes for national fresh fruit consumption.

Search For James Gang Hoard Moves From Ohio to Indiana

ZANESVILLE — (INS) — Four men who said they knew Jesse James, left Zanesville yesterday for Indiana to carry on their search for $1,500,000 they believe the famous outlaw buried after one of his raids.

The leader of the party, Lee Howk, who classes himself as a private investigator, said they planned "to scout around a bit" in the area he said Jesse was known to have visited.

In Austin, Texas, an aged Oklahoman who claims to be the real Jesse James, said:

"They won't find it...it's under 30 feet of water."

"Jesse", or J. Frank Dalton, was under an oxygen tent suffering from pneumonia in Austen's Breckenridge hospital. He said the hidden fortune actually amounted to only $52,000.

Dalton said he knew the men who unsuccessfully roamed the Muskingum county hills around Zanesville for a week. He said: "Howk knows something, but he don't know enough."

Others in the Zanesville party were "Uncle John" Trammel who claims to be a 109-year-old ex-slave who rode with Jesse; Roscoe James, self-styled nephew of the famous outlaw of the 1880's, and James Cooper.

"Uncle John," who claims he helped the desperado bury the treasure, has said the quartet has at least a dozen more spots in mind.

The secret of cooking veal is using the long, slow method. That prevents it from being too tough, even though it has little fat.

Rail Lobbyists Launch Drive Against Belt Conveyor Plan

Big Dispute Hinges On PUCO Angle

Right of Way Proposal Ripped

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Railroad lobbyists took the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio river conveyor belt line apart last night.

Proponents of the 130-mile "rubber railroad" will have a chance to put it back together at a third hearing of the state Senate's Judiciary committee. That probably will be next week.

Top-flight railroad attorneys said a bill to authorize construction of the belt line wouldn't make it a common carrier.

Public utility status as a common carrier is necessary for the belt line to condemn land. That's so it can build its $210,000,000 coal and iron ore hauling system between Lorain and East Liverpool, with spurs to Cleveland and Youngstown.

Earl C. Shively of Columbus, general counsel for the Ohio Railroad association, summed it up thus:

"We don't think it is a public utility. We don't think you can make it a public utility. And we don't think you can give it the right of eminent domain."

He estimated the belt line might cost 15,000 to 20,000 men their jobs by diverting business from the railroads.

Railroads in northeastern Ohio made unprofitable by a conveyor should be permitted to abandon their lines without authority from the Public Utilities commission of Ohio, he said. PUCO assent now is required for such action.

Supporting Shively's contentions were two former speakers of the Ohio House of Representatives. They are Jackson E. Betts of Findlay and Frank R. Uible of Cleveland.

Both are attorneys for a special transportation committee formed by 12 railroads operating in Ohio. The committee's announced purpose is to halt the belt line.

The Akron, Canton and Youngstown railroad isn't a committee member. Its president, H. B. Stewart jr., of Akron, also is president of Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, incorporated.

Stewart unveiled his project last month to a surprised railroad industry. The Judiciary committee held its first hearing on the belt line bill a few weeks later.

Farm Bureau Boards Meet

Board of trustees members of the Richland county Farm Bureau Federation and the Farm Bureau Cooperative association are meeting in Galion today with Farm Bureau representatives of three other counties to discuss policies and procedures of the organizations.

'Ban' Bares Eagles Huge Slots 'Take'

Letter Reveals Watson Order

Officers of the lodge who resigned last January in connection with the Mansfield slot machine dispute, according to Eglesberg, were: Peter Herold president; Homer Beck, secretary; and Harry Emmons, Clyde Rickets and Roy Hartman, trustees.

Eglesberg showed a copy of a registered letter "from the office of DeVere Watson, grand worthy president" of the Fraternal Order of Eagles instructing the local lodge to buy its own "devices" for display in its club rooms so that all proceeds from "such devices" (slots) "will enure to your aerie."

Actually, Eglesberg said, the letter meant that the local club would not receive permission to operate from its state and national headquarters until it installed slot machines "approved" by M. L. (Matty) Brown, managing director of both the state and national Eagles organizations.

The letter, which was received by Eglesberg, with copies for Herold and the board of trustees of the lodge, stated:

"I am in receipt of your duly executed buffet questionnaire, (report of stewardship of club funds, including income from clubrooms and slot machines, bar) however, I am credibly advised that in the operation of your buffet, devices (slots) are being operated which are not the sole property of your aerie and in which outsiders participate in the receipts from such devices. Therefore, I am withholding your buffet permit for the year 1949 until such time as these devices have been taken out of operation, or until such time as your aerie purchases devices of your own so that all of the income from such devices will enure to your aerie.

"Accordingly, you will not be permitted to operate your social rooms and your 1949 buffet permit is being withheld until your aerie has complied by owning its own devices as above referred to."

The letter bore a stamped signature of DeVere Watson, grand worthy president, and was dated Dec 30, 1948.

EITHER OR ELSE!

Eglesberg said that the letter meant that the local lodge was being required to put in state organization slot machines, and that it was followed by a visit from Harley E Gardell field director for the Eagles, who told Eglesberg and the lodge officers that they had their choice of putting in the machines, or resigning their offices.

When the officers and trustees refused to co-operate on the machine installation, Eglesberg declared, Gardell presented prepared resignation statements which the officers signed.

In a similar dispute at Lorain, which boiled into the open last week, a court injunction has been granted restraining Brown and the state and national organizations of Eagles from "interfering in the conduct of the Lorain lodge of Eagles."

In a petition on which the court granted the injunction it is charged that Brown, through his various representatives, including Gardell, "has attempted and is attempting to force the Lorain Aerie, 343, to operate slot machines on a per centage basis in its club rooms to be serviced by either the Ohio Organization department or some other organization controled by M. L. Brown and for his personal profit, and that trustees did refuse so to do."

The court petition also charges that Brown has in the past and does now exert influence upon the aerie so that it purchases most of its supplies, running into thousands of dollars annually, from the Ohio State Supply company, although the same merchandise could be bought more cheaply from other suppliers.

MUST BUY FROM BROWN

Eglesberg in Mansfield confirmed that under the lodge rules, any furniture or supply purchase of more than $250 must have approval of state headquarters— Matty Brown —and that unless the purchase is made from Ohio State Supply company, the state lodge approval is withheld.

Eglesberg reported the machines confiscated at the Eagles home here in a state liquor department raid in September, 1947, were machines controlled by Brown. He said that it was after confiscation of these machines, on the basis of which Eglesberg was arrested and appeared in court to pay a fine for the aerie, that machines belonging to a local slot machine distributor were displayed.

The former secretary claimed that the ownership of the machines was listed as being with the local aerie for purposes of federal tax payment and that the lodge paid $80 of the $100 tax per machine, and the $20 was paid by the state organization.

Eglesberg said that it is his understanding that at the present time the lodge has no slot machines.

Since his resignation from the Eagles, Eglesberg is devoting his full time to his insurance and real estate office at 14½ Park avenue west

Sure, and Today's When The Irish Take Over

ganization was going strong here.

He recalled that "as many as 300 persons attended the banquets. Some were Irish and some claimed to be." Carroll says the guests "were accepted as Irish."

And before that, there was another group for persons of Irish descent. It was called the "Ancient Order of Hibernians." That was about 40 years ago when there were quite a few Irishmen here, mostly railroad workers, Carroll said.

In those days "you'd never catch an Irishman working on St. Patrick's day," Carroll remarked. He was at work today as was Pete Creamer, who owns a green tie and had one on.

Attorney John O'Donnell, who said he'd wear a green tie, today, said a little celebration was planned at home tonight.

"ORANGE CHALLENGE"

And then there were some who brazenly sported orange ties today—the sort of challenge that makes many a "green Irishman" fight at the drop of a shamrock.

And in Cincinnati, Jeff Davis, king of the hobos, made a St. Patrick day bid for international peace.

In an order of the day, King Jeff the One decreed that all his German subjects attending a St. Patrick's Day party in Cincinnati would eat the Irishman's traditional cornbeef and cabbage, while the Irish subjects dined on sauerkraut and wiener schnitzel.

Then there are stories of a Detroit woman who last year put her son in green diapers and of a Boston butcher who had his hair dyed a color of the same name.

And here's a bit of historical data—St. Patrick crossed over from the Isle of Main in 433 and chased the snakes out of Ireland. Hence, a celebration, and hence this story.

Negotiations Break Down

GALION — Negotiation efforts in the Hercules Steel Products corporation strike were futile here yesterday and this morning so H. J. Montoney, federal conciliator, returned to Columbus at noon. He reported neither labor nor management ready for negotiating the two-week-old strike that idled 150 employes at the plant when the International Association of Machinists walked out Feb. 21 in protest against piece work rate pay changes.

Another 150 workers are idle at the strikebound Central Ohio Steel Products company where Montoney reported no move has been made toward negotiations.

Seven Fined For Traffic Violations

Crashes Bring Three Charges

Seven motorists appeared in municipal traffic court yesterday and were fined a total of $55 and court costs for various traffic violations.

William B. Shoup jr., 274 Myers avenue entered a plea of guilty to a charge of failure to register an automobile. He was driving the car on expired California license tags. He was fined $5 and costs. Shoup entered a plea of innocent of five separate parking violations. He was released on $15 bond and his case was continued to March 19.

For operating an automobile with no driver's license Helen B Meister, 126 Blanche street, was fined $5 and costs.

Three men arraigned on charges of failure to yield the right-of-way entered pleas of guilty and were fined $10 and costs each.

Samuel J. McMullen, 556 Conner drive, was arrested after his car collided with another driven by Raulman F. Jewell, at the intersection of Park avenue east and Adams street.

Wayne H. Baker, 348 Fair street, was arrested after an collision at the intersection of East Second and Adams street. His car collided with another driven by Bennie Miller, 475 Diamond street.

As a result of a collision at the intersection of Fourth and Main streets, John D. Aumend, 552 Lida street, was arraigned on a failure to yield the right-of-way charge. His car was involved in a collision with another driven by Dewey Stimmell, Mansfield R. D. 2.

Charged with speeding on Lexington avenue, Benjamin Shelpman, Ashland, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs, by Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler.

Albert Elliott, 335 Newman street, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a vehicle with insufficient lights, and was fined $5 and costs.

Gets Service Center Permit

Construction will start next week on a service station and garage at East Fourth and Adams streets.

Linham's Automotive service, 100 East Fourth street, which has been at its present location for more than 15 years, will move into the new structure when it is completed, H. E. Linham said today.

A building permit has been issued to the Texas Company, Indianapolis, Ind., for the construction of the cement block structure. It will cost an estimated $28,500 to build, and will be completed in about three months

Contractor for the project is Ivon Bauer, Mansfield

Club Sends 2 Boys To Conference

Rotary Sponsors Trip to Cincinnati

Robert G. Clouse and Thomas W. Owen, both seniors at Mansfield Senior high, will attend the third annual Rotary World Affairs Institute at Cincinnati on March 25 and 26 under the sponsorship of the Mansfield Rotary club.

Clouse is the son of Mrs. Marian Clouse, 430 Glessner avenue, and Owen is the son of Mrs. M. Olive Owen, 503 Cline avenue.

The two boys are members of a group of high school juniors and seniors who meet with the Mansfield Rotary club each Tuesday noon at the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Two boys attend the meetings for a period of two months, then two others are selected by the high school faculty to attend.

Owen and Clouse were chosen by this group of high school "Junior Rotarians" to represent Mansfield high school students at the conference.

Former Senator Warren Austin, now chief delegate of the United States to the U. N., will address the group of 700 boys converging on Cincinnati from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, at the closing session of the meeting March 26.

The North Atlantic pact will be emphasized at the institute and speeches by notable American diplomats will be given on this subject.

Discussion groups will be formed after the speeches so the boys will have an opportunity to ask questions so as to be prepared to present what they learned about international relationships to their respective high school classes on returning to Mansfield.

500 Hear Evangelist

In spite of slippery streets last night a crowd of 500 heard Rev. Jack Shuler at the Johnny Appleseed auditorium speak in the fourth of the evangelistic series here.

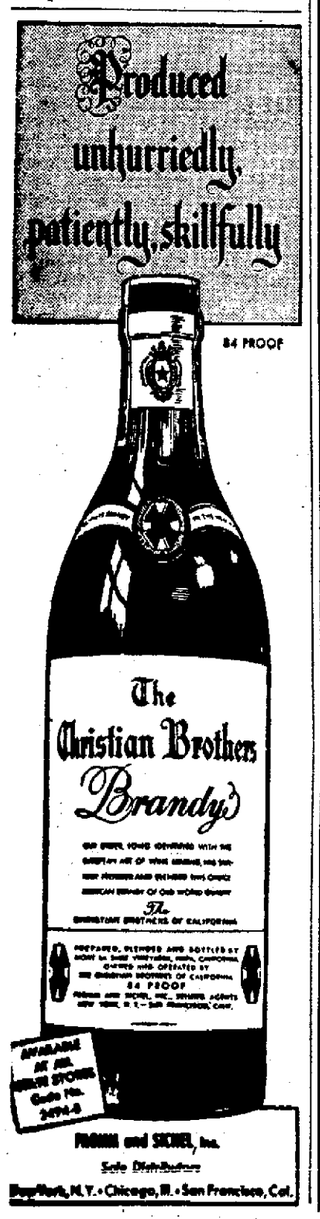
Rev. Shuler pointed out that "Repentance is prerequisite to salvation."

"No one can be saved without repenting any more than he can live without oxygen," Rev. Shuler declared. "This is not my own opinion or that of anyone else, but it is the infallible word of Jesus Christ who said, 'Except ye repent, you shall all likewise perish.'

"Sin is a worse disease than cancer or polio. Cancer and polio will not destroy America even though they take a large toll every year, but sin is doing that very thing. Let's do something about it."

"The Fight Is On," was the title of the organ and piano duet by Les Barnett, while Harry Clark, song leader, sang "Hiding In the Shadow of the Rock." Richard Hardesty of Marion sang, "In My Heart He Implanteth a Song."

Attendance at the noon-day services held at the First United Presbyterian church is increasing with each meeting, Rev. Charles L. Shook, general chairman and pastor of the church, said today. Rev. Shuler spoke yesterday at noon on the parable of the sower. His subject at the evangelistic services tonight will be "The High Crime of Spiritual Birth Control."



Red Cross Workers Over Half-Way Mark In Fund Drive

Red Cross volunteer workers were well over the half-way mark today in the annual campaign in Mansfield and Richland county for $48,835.

Receipts tallied today at headquarters, reached $28,226.75 with $2,568.45 coming from Shelby.

There have been no reports from county workers due to bad road conditions. However, if the weather becomes milder it is expected that reports soon will start coming to headquarters, Glenn L. Bierly said today.

Two more precincts have exceeded their quotas in the drive. They include Precinct G of First ward, Mrs. Emil Stephan, chairman, quota $70, receipts $73; Precinct G in Second ward, Mrs. R. F. Schmitt, chairman, quota $120 and total receipts $132.

Bierly said today headquarters had been getting telephone calls from Mansfield residents saying they had not been contacted.

"That is probably due to the fact that residents were not at home when volunteers called," Bierly said. "But if they will bring or send their contributions to headquarters in the A. B. Grafton garage, they will be credited to the worker in that district."

Added to the 100 per cent firms today were: Lumbermens Mutual Insurance company, Parkway Lunch, Hotel Fairview, Inc., Brinkerhoff school, East Mansfield school, Johnny Appleseed cafeteria, Leppo shop, Mansfield Structural and Erecting company, Hartmann Suspender company, Therm-O-Disc, Inc., R. L. Henry Lumber company, Harding and Loughridge Insurance company, Charles W. Conklin firm, Dr. L. A. Hautzenroeder's office, City Coal company.

Found Guilty Of Larceny

Miles Marion Skaggs, 42, of 325 North Main street, was found guilty today of grand larceny by three judges sitting in common pleas court here. Sentencing was deferred by the court. He was charged in the theft of $220 from Carlton E. Eighmy.

The verdict was returned shortly before noon. The judges deliberated for 45 minutes. Skaggs went on trial yesterday. He was represented by Attorney Homer G. Clark and Prosecutor Harold Lutz represented the state.

Hearing the case were Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch, Walter J. Mougey, of Seneca county, and Ralph Sugrue, of Wayne county.

Frank Skaggs, 41, a cousin, who gave the same address as Miles Marion Skaggs, is charged with grand larceny in the same case. He was to go trial this afternoon before the three-judge court.

Door Charred By Water Heater

A cellar door at the home of Charles Ardek, 343 Hammond avenue, was charred early today when it swung against the hot water heater in the basement of the home.

Firemen from Central and No. 3 stations were called to the home at 7:31 a. m. Damage was confined to the door, firemen said.

Fire Hits Residence

Fire and smoke caused considerable damage to the home of Anna Normant, 431 Daisy street, this morning. Crewmen from Central and No. 2 stations battled the blaze which burned the walls of one room and the floor and ceiling of another. Clothing was damaged.

The alarm came in at 9:06 a. m., and firemen fought the flames for nearly an hour.

The fire started in a glass-enclosed laundry at the rear of the house and spread to an upstairs room, firemen said.

Firemen from Central and 2 stations answered an alarm at the home of K. S. Smith, 588 Lida street, at 10:30 a. m. today. There was no damage reported.

A wastebasket fire at 11:45 a. m. at Senior high school created a scare at the school but there was no damage.

The fire, which started on the second story in a custodian's room, caused the alarm which had the 1,200 pupils and faculty out in the cold for a few minutes until the fire was extinguished.

Discuss Road Programs

A steering committee discussed proposals for state highway improvements in Richland county yesterday afternoon at a meeting in the county commissioners office.

Attending were the commissioners, John Conard, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee; Dean Dickerson, president of the Chamber; Mayor W. R. Morris, of Shelby, Earl T. Garrison, safety-service director of Mansfield, and County Engineer Walter E. Rusk.

Among the proposals discussed were a belt line that would carry traffic around Mansfield. One of the ideas offered by Rusk called for a highway to Ashland road, thus by-passing the city.

Another idea was the extension of Broadway street in Shelby north to Route 61.

Conard said he had called a meeting for March 29 of his committee with public officials to go over various highway proposals.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Jones Firm Purchases Building

Acquires Property On Park Avenue W.

The W. E. Jones Furniture and Piano company today announced the purchase of the building at 146 Park avenue west which the store occupies.

John S. Jones, who is associated with his father, W. E. Jones in the business, said the property was obtained from G. H. Schrack. The purchase price was not disclosed.

The building has a frontage of 72 feet on Park avenue west and extends 220 feet to the rear. It is located next to the Ohio theater. The Jones company has been located in the building for the past 15 years and in Mansfield for 35 years.

The company has had a half-century of business in selling furniture and pianos, having started in Loudonville.

John S. Jones said today the company is planning to alter the interior of the building to make it one of the most modern and completely-equipped furniture stores in northern Ohio.

Although lease negotiations had been in progress for some time sale of the building was a sudden move on the part of Schrack, Jones said.

Legion Post Maps Drive

McVey Post, the American Legion, officially launched its 1949 membership drive at its meeting last night. Commander Charles Boughton reported the post's present membership at 1,425.

J. C. Stout accepted the Legion's appointment as chairman of this year's Boy's State program. The post plans to send 16 Mansfield boys to the Boy's State at Delaware during the summer. The program's purpose is to educate the youngsters in the operation of state, county, and city governments.

Rising Tendencies Replace Early Stock Mart Losses

NEW YORK—(AP)—Rising tendencies replaced early indecision in the stock market today.

While the forward movement was not a sweeping affair, the majority of issues scored gains of fractions to more than a point.

Trading was again skimpy.

Magnavox took another licking after dropping 1⅞ yesterday. The price was marked down 2 points to a low for the year. Superior Oil of California, a high-priced stock, also tripped up with a 5-point loss at 155.

Boosted a bit were Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Texas company, Eastern Air Lines, Consolidated Edison and Consolidated Natural Gas.

Burglars Break Door at Market

A two-by-four, used to bar double doors at Sinito's market, 238 North Diamond street, was found broken early today by police who said the market apparently had been burglarized during the night.

However, police said, nothing was missing in the market. Officers said pressure had been exerted from the outside to break the timber holding the doors, located on the East Sixth street side of the market.

Rail Lobbyists Launch Drive Against Belt Conveyor Plan

Big Dispute Hinges On PUCO Angle

Right of Way Proposal Ripped

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Railroad lobbyists took the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio river conveyor belt line apart last night.

Proponents of the 130-mile "rubber railroad" will have a chance to put it back together at a third hearing of the state Senate's Judiciary committee. That probably will be next week.

Top-flight railroad attorneys said a bill to authorize construction of the belt line wouldn't make it a common carrier.

Public utility status as a common carrier is necessary for the belt line to condemn land. That's so it can build its $210,000,000 coal and iron ore hauling system between Lorain and East Liverpool, with spurs to Cleveland and Youngstown.

Earl C. Shively of Columbus, general counsel for the Ohio Railroad association, summed it up thus:

"We don't think it is a public utility. We don't think you can make it a public utility. And we don't think you can give it the right of eminent domain."

He estimated the belt line might cost 15,000 to 20,000 men their jobs by diverting business from the railroads.

Railroads in northeastern Ohio made unprofitable by a conveyor should be permitted to abandon their lines without authority from the Public Utilities commission of Ohio, he said. PUCO assent now is required for such action.

Supporting Shively's contentions were two former speakers of the Ohio House of Representatives. They are Jackson E. Betts of Findlay and Frank R. Uible of Cleveland.

Both are attorneys for a special transportation committee formed by 12 railroads operating in Ohio. The committee's announced purpose is to halt the belt line.

The Akron, Canton and Youngstown railroad isn't a committee member. Its president, H. B. Stewart jr., of Akron, also is president of Riverlake Belt Conveyor Lines, incorporated.

Stewart unveiled his project last month to a surprised railroad industry. The Judiciary committee held its first hearing on the belt line bill a few weeks later.

'Ban' Bares Eagles Huge Slots 'Take'

Letter Reveals Watson Order

Officers of the lodge who resigned last January in connection with the Mansfield slot machine dispute, according to Eglesberg, were: Peter Herold president; Homer Beck, secretary; and Harry Emmons, Clyde Rickets and Roy Hartman, trustees.

Eglesberg showed a copy of a registered letter "from the office of DeVere Watson, grand worthy president" of the Fraternal Order of Eagles instructing the local lodge to buy its own "devices" for display in its club rooms so that all proceeds from "such devices" (slots) "will enure to your aerie."

Actually, Eglesberg said, the letter meant that the local club would not receive permission to operate from its state and national headquarters until it installed slot machines "approved" by M. L. (Matty) Brown, managing director of both the state and national Eagles organizations.

The letter, which was received by Eglesberg, with copies for Herold and the board of trustees of the lodge, stated:

"I am in receipt of your duly executed buffet questionnaire, (report of stewardship of club funds, including income from clubrooms and slot machines, bar) however, I am credibly advised that in the operation of your buffet, devices (slots) are being operated which are not the sole property of your aerie and in which outsiders participate in the receipts from such devices. Therefore, I am withholding your buffet permit for the year 1949 until such time as these devices have been taken out of operation, or until such time as your aerie purchases devices of your own so that all of the income from such devices will enure to your aerie.

"Accordingly, you will not be permitted to operate your social rooms and your 1949 buffet permit is being withheld until your aerie has complied by owning its own devices as above referred to."

The letter bore a stamped signature of DeVere Watson, grand worthy president, and was dated Dec 30, 1948.

EITHER OR ELSE!

Eglesberg said that the letter meant that the local lodge was being required to put in state organization slot machines, and that it was followed by a visit from Harley E Gardell, field director for the Eagles, who told Eglesberg and the lodge officers that they had their choice of putting in the machnes, or resigning their offices.

When the officers and trustees refused to co-operate on the machine installation, Eglesberg declared, Gardell presented prepared resignation statements which the officers signed.

In a similar dispute at Lorain which boiled into the open last week a court injunction has been granted restraining Brown and the state and national organizations of Eagles from interfering in the conduct of the Lorain lodge of Eagles.

In a petition on which the court granted the injunction, it is charged that Brown, through his various representatives, including Gardell, "has attempted and is attempting to force the Lorain Aerie, 343, to operate slot machines on a per centage basis in its club rooms to be serviced by either the Ohio Organization department or some other organization controled by M L. Brown and for his personal profit, and that trustees did refuse so to do."

The court petition also charges that Brown has in the past and does now exert influence upon the aerie so that it purchases most of its supplies, running into thousands of dollars annually, from the Ohio State Supply company, although the same merchandise could be bought more cheaply from other suppliers.

MUST BUY FROM BROWN

Eglesberg in Mansfield confirmed that under the lodge rules, any furniture or supply purchase of more than $250 must have approval of state headquarters— Matty Brown —and that unless the purchase is made from Ohio State Supply company, the state lodge approval is withheld.

Eglesberg reported the machines confiscated at the Eagles home here in a state liquor department raid in September, 1947, were machines controlled by Brown. He said that it was after confiscation of these machines, on the basis of which Eglesberg was arrested and appeared in court to pay a fine for the aerie, that machines belonging to a local slot machine distributor were displayed.

The former secretary claimed that the ownership of the machines was listed as being with the local aerie for purposes of federal tax payment and that the lodge paid $80 of the $100 tax per machine, and the $20 was paid by the state organization.

Eglesberg said that it is his understanding that at the present time the lodge has no slot machines.

Since his resignation from the Eagles, Eglesberg is devoting his full time to his insurance and real estate office at 14½ Park avenue west.

Sure, and Today's When The Irish Take Over

ganization was going strong here.

He recalled that "as many as 300 persons attended the banquets. Some were Irish and some claimed to be." Carroll says the guests "were accepted as Irish."

And before that, there was another group for persons of Irish descent. It was called the "Ancient Order of Hibernians." That was about 40 years ago when there were quite a few Irishmen here, mostly railroad workers, Carroll said.

In those days "you'd never catch an Irishman working on St. Patrick's day," Carroll remarked. He was at work today as was Pete Creamer, who owns a green tie and had one on.

Attorney John O'Donnell, who said he'd wear a green tie, today, said a little celebration was planned at home tonight.

"ORANGE CHALLENGE"

And then there were some who brazenly sported orange ties today—the sort of challenge that makes many a "green Irishman" fight at the drop of a shamrock.

And in Cincinnati, Jeff Davis, king of the hobos, made a St. Patrick day bid for international peace.

In an order of the day, King Jeff the One decreed that all his German subjects attending a St. Patrick's Day party in Cincinnati would eat the Irishman's traditional cornbeef and cabbage, while the Irish subjects dined on sauerkraut and wiener schnitzel.

Then there are stories of a Detroit woman who last year put her son in green diapers and of a Boston butcher who had his hair dyed a color of the same name.

And here's a bit of historical data—St. Patrick crossed over from the Isle of Main in 433 and chased the snakes out of Ireland. Hence, a celebration, and hence this story.

Negotiations Break Down

GALION — Negotiation efforts in the Hercules Steel Products corporation strike were futile here yesterday and this morning so H. J Montoney, federal conciliator, returned to Columbus at noon. He reported neither labor nor management ready for negotiating the two-week-old strike that idled 150 employes at the plant when the International Association of Machinists walked out Feb. 21 in protest against piece work rate pay changes.

Another 150 workers are idle at the strikebound Central Ohio Steel Products company where Montoney reported no move has been made toward negotiations.

Seven Fined For Traffic Violations

Crashes Bring Three Charges

Seven motorists appeared in municipal traffic court yesterday and were fined a total of $55 and court costs for various traffic violations.

William B. Shoup jr., 274 Myers avenue entered a plea of guilty to a charge of failure to register an automobile. He was driving the car on expired California license tags. He was fined $5 and costs. Shoup entered a plea of innocent to five separate parking violations. He was released on $15 bond and his case was continued to March 19.

For operating an automobile with no driver's license Helen B. Meister, 126 Blanche street, was fined $5 and costs.

Three men arraigned on charges of failure to yield the right-of-way entered pleas of guilty and were fined $10 and costs each.

Samuel J. McMullen, 556 Conner drive, was arrested after his car collided with another driven by Raulman F. Jewell, at the intersection of Park avenue east and Adams street.

Wayne H. Baker, 348 Fair street, was arrested after an collision at the intersection of East Second and Adams street. His car collided with another driven by Bennie Miller, 475 Diamond street.

As a result of a collision at the intersection of Fourth and Main streets, John D. Aumend 552 Lida street, was arraigned on a failure to yield the right-of-way charge. His car was involved in a collision with another driven by Dewey Stimmell, Mansfield R. D. 2.

Charged with speeding on Lexington avenue, Benjamin Shelpman, Ashland, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs, by Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler.

Albert Elliott, 335 Newman street, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a vehicle with insufficient lights, and was fined $5 and costs.

Gets Service Center Permit

Construction will start next week on a service station and garage at East Fourth and Adams streets.

Linham's Automotive service, 100 East Fourth street, which has been at its present location for more than 15 years, will move into the new structure when it is completed, H. E. Linham said today.

A building permit has been issued to the Texas Company, Indianapolis, Ind., for the construction of the cement block structure. It will cost an estimated $28,500 to build, and will be completed in about three months

Contractor for the project is Ivon Bauer, Mansfield.

Club Sends 2 Boys To Conference

Rotary Sponsors Trip to Cincinnati

Robert G. Clouse and Thomas W. Owen, both seniors at Mansfield Senior high, will attend the third annual Rotary World Affairs Institute at Cincinnati on March 25 and 26 under the sponsorship of the Mansfield Rotary club.

Clouse is the son of Mrs. Marian Clouse, 430 Glessner avenue, and Owen is the son of Mrs. M. Olive Owen, 503 Cline avenue.

The two boys are members of a group of high school juniors and seniors who meet with the Mansfield Rotary club each Tuesday noon at the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Two boys attend the meetings for a period of two months, then two others are selected by the high school faculty to attend.

Owen and Clouse were chosen by this group of high school "Junior Rotarians" to represent Mansfield high school students at the conference.

Former Senator Warren Austin, now chief delegate of the United States to the U. N., will address the group of 700 boys converging on Cincinnati from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana, at the closing session of the meeting March 26.

The North Atlantic pact will be emphasized at the institute and speeches by notable American diplomats will be given on this subject.

Discussion groups will be formed after the speeches so the boys will have an opportunity to ask questions so as to be prepared to present what they learned about international relationships to their respective high school classes on returning to Mansfield.

500 Hear Evangelist

In spite of slippery streets last night a crowd of 500 heard Rev. Jack Shuler at the Johnny Appleseed auditorium speak in the fourth of the evangelistic series here.

Rev. Shuler pointed out that "Repentance is prerequisite to salvation."

"No one can be saved without repenting any more than he can live without oxygen," Rev. Shuler declared. "This is not my own opinion or that of anyone else, but it is the infallible word of Jesus Christ who said, 'Except ye repent, you shall all likewise perish.'

"Sin is a worse disease than cancer or polio. Cancer and polio will not destroy America even though they take a large toll every year, but sin is doing that very thing. Let's do something about it."

"The Fight Is On," was the title of the organ and piano duet by Les Barnett, while Harry Clark, song leader, sang "Hiding In the Shadow of the Rock." Richard Hardesty of Marion sang, "In My Heart He Implanteth a Song."

Attendance at the noon-day services held at the First United Presbyterian church is increasing with each meeting, Rev. Charles L. Shook, general chairman and pastor of the church, said today. Rev. Shuler spoke yesterday at noon on the parable of the sower. His subject at the evangelistic services tonight will be "The High Crime of Spiritual Birth Control."

Red Cross Workers Over Half-Way Mark In Fund Drive

Red Cross volunteer workers were well over the half-way mark today in the annual campaign in Mansfield and Richland county for $48,835.

Receipts tallied today at headquarters, reached $28,226.75 with $2,568.45 coming from Shelby.

There have been no reports from county workers due to bad road conditions. However, if the weather becomes milder it is expected that reports soon will start coming to headquarters, Glenn L. Bierly said today.

Two more precincts have exceeded their quotas in the drive. They include Precinct G of First ward, Mrs. Emil Stephan, chairman, quota $70, receipts $73; Precinct G in Second ward, Mrs. R. F. Schmitt, chairman, quota $120 and total receipts $132.

Bierly said today headquarters had been getting telephone calls from Mansfield residents saying they had not been contacted.

"That is probably due to the fact that residents were not at home when volunteers called," Bierly said. "But if they will bring or send their contributions to headquarters in the A. B. Grafton garage, they will be credited to the worker in that district."

Added to the 100 per cent firms today were: Lumbermens Mutual Insurance company, Parkway Lunch, Hotel Fairview, Inc., Brinkerhoff school, East Mansfield school, Johnny Appleseed cafeteria, Leppo shop, Mansfield Structural and Erecting company, Hartmann Suspender company, Therm-O-Disc, Inc., R. L. Henry Lumber company, Harding and Loughridge Insurance company, Charles W. Conklin firm, Dr. L. A. Hautzenroeder's office, City Coal company.

Found Guilty Of Larceny

Miles Marion Skaggs, 42, of 325 North Main street, was found guilty today of grand larceny by three judges sitting in common pleas court here. Sentencing was deferred by the court. He was charged in the theft of $220 from Carlton E. Eighmy.

The verdict was returned shortly before noon. The judges deliberated for 45 minutes. Skaggs went on trial yesterday. He was represented by Attorney Homer G. Clark and Prosecutor Harold Lutz represented the state.

Hearing the case were Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch, Walter J. Mougey, of Seneca county, and Ralph Sugrue, of Wayne county.

Frank Skaggs, 41, a cousin, who gave the same address as Miles Marion Skaggs, is charged with grand larceny in the same case. He was to go trial this afternoon before the three-judge court.

Door Charred By Water Heater

A cellar door at the home of Charles Ardek, 343 Hammond avenue, was charred early today when it swung against the hot water heater in the basement of the home.

Firemen from Central and No. 3 stations were called to the home at 7:31 a. m. Damage was confined to the door, firemen said.

Fire Hits Residence

Fire and smoke caused considerable damage to the home of Anna Normant, 431 Daisy street, this morning. Crewmen from Central and No. 2 stations battled the blaze which burned the walls of one room and the floor and ceiling of another. Clothing was damaged.

The alarm came in at 9:06 a. m., and firemen fought the flames for nearly an hour.

The fire started in a glass-enclosed laundry at the rear of the house and spread to an upstairs room, firemen said.

Firemen from Central and 2 stations answered an alarm at the home of K. S. Smith, 588 Lida street, at 10:30 a. m. today. There was no damage reported.

A wastebasket fire at 11:45 a. m. at Senior high school created a scare at the school but there was no damage.

The fire, which started on the second story in a custodian's room, caused the alarm which had the 1,200 pupils and faculty out in the cold for a few minutes until the fire was extinguished.

Discuss Road Programs

A steering committee discussed proposals for state highway improvements in Richland county yesterday afternoon at a meeting in the county commissioners office.

Attending were the commissioners, John Conard, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee; Dean Dickerson, president of the Chamber; Mayor W. R. Morris, of Shelby, Earl T. Garrison, safety-service director of Mansfield, and County Engineer Walter E. Rusk.

Among the proposals discussed were a belt line that would carry traffic around Mansfield. One of the ideas offered by Rusk called for a highway to Ashland road, thus by-passing the city.

Another idea was the extension of Broadway street in Shelby north to Route 61.

Conard said he had called a meeting for March 29 of his committee with public officials to go over various highway proposals.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. —Adv.

Jones Firm Purchases Building

Acquires Property On Park Avenue W.

The W. E. Jones Furniture and Piano company today announced the purchase of the building at 146 Park avenue west which the store occupies.

John S. Jones, who is associated with his father, W. E. Jones in the business, said the property was obtained from G. H. Schrack. The purchase price was not disclosed.

The building has a frontage of 72 feet on Park avenue west and extends 220 feet to the rear. It is located next to the Ohio theater. The Jones company has been located in the building for the past 15 years and in Mansfield for 35 years.

The company has had a half-century of business in selling furniture and pianos, having started in Loudonville.

John S. Jones said today the company is planning to alter the interior of the building to make it one of the most modern and completely-equipped furniture stores in northern Ohio.

Although lease negotiations had been in progress for some time sale of the building was a sudden move on the part of Schrack, Jones said.

Legion Post Maps Drive

McVey Post, the American Legion, officially launched its 1949 membership drive at its meeting last night. Commander Charles Boughton reported the post's present membership at 1,425.

J. C. Stout accepted the Legion's appointment as chairman of this year's Boy's State program. The post plans to send 16 Mansfield boys to the Boy's State at Delaware during the summer. The program's purpose is to educate the youngsters in the operation of state, county, and city governments.

Rising Tendencies Replace Early Stock Mart Losses

NEW YORK—(AP)—Rising tendencies replaced early indecision in the stock market today.

While the forward movement was not a sweeping affair, the majority of issues scored gains of fractions to more than a point.

Trading was again skimpy.

Magnavox took another licking after dropping 17s yesterday. The price was marked down 2 points to a low for the year. Superior Oil of California, a high-priced stock, also tripped up with a 5-point loss at 155.

Boosted a bit were Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Texas company, Eastern Air Lines, Consolidated Edison and Consolidated Natural Gas.

Burglars Break Door at Market

A two-by-four, used to bar double doors at Sinito's market, 233 North Diamond street, was found broken early today by police who said the market apparently had been burglarized during the night.

However, police said, nothing was missing in the market. Officers said pressure had been exerted from the outside to break the timber holding the doors, located on the East Sixth street side of the market.

Fate of Rent Controls Uncertain

RENT CONTROL, always a hotly controversial subject, enters another round of argument over a bill passed by the House to continue control another fifteen months but to permit states, counties and municipalities to either set up their own controls or drop them entirely.

What the Senate will do with a rent-control bill—when it gets around to it—is problematical, but if decision is to be left to states and smaller subdivisions, the complications and inequalities would seem to be so great as to justify dropping the whole thing—at least for a tryout of the "supply and demand" theory.

Application of rent controls to some residential property and not to all, has resulted in odd situations, such as that revealed in an item in yesterday's News-Journal which told of a garage being converted into two apartments at the uncontrolled monthly rental of $75 and $76, while a six-room modern house on the same street was held to $46 a month by federal control.

Such fantastic examples of weak spots in rent control, coupled with revealed instances in which owners have been deprived of reasonable return on rental property, tend to strengthen arguments in favor of dropping all federal controls.

But, on the other hand, extortionate rentals charged by some—even a few—landlords, have worked hardships on families driven to desperation in trying to find a place to live, and it is such cases that have argued need for continuance of controls until the housing shortage is relieved.

These problems confront Congress as it grapples with the pro and con of rent controls—and reaching a decision that will be fair to all parties concerned will not be easy.

Purpose of Filibuster Attained

OUT OF THE MAZE of partisan and sectional politics that has enveloped that "greatest of all deliberative bodies," the United States Senate, for almost three weeks, there has finally emerged a compromise which has ended one filibuster but which will not prevent another—in the event of majority effort to change Senate rules.

It took a coalition of Republican and southern Democratic senators to prescribe the terms under which the 16-day filibuster against President Truman's civil rights program was called off, and this same uniting of forces against other phases of the President's campaign promises seems likely to appear rather frequently as administration bills reach the Senate.

Regrettable as it may be, it has again been demonstrated that a few southern states have the power, through use of the filibuster, to defeat majority wishes in the matter of extending civil rights to all citizens of states which now practice racial discrimination.

It is claimed by the southern states that this is their problem and that progress is being made in its solution. The issue is the same as that which brought on the Civil war—states' rights—but this time the action is legislative, not military.

Green Is Today's Favorite Color

TODAY ALL FAITHFUL sons of Erin, and a lot of other people who just like to go along with a celebration, are "wearing o' the green." This venerable custom is traditionally attributed to the honoring of St. Patrick, patron of Ireland, who first brought Christianity to the emerald isle.

Serious credence is no longer given to the fascinating legend that St. Patrick also drove all the snakes from what is now Eire, but every good Irishman takes seriously his observance of the day.

New York and Cleveland will be seeing their usual parades. But any observance locally is expected to be impromptu and informal as has been the case generally since the disappearance of that once flourishing organization "The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick."

Where formal celebrations are held, tribute will properly be paid to the contribution the Irish have made to our civilization and culture over and above being excellent police officers and able to acquit themselves well in such adventures as are mentioned in the currently popular song "Clancy Lowered the Boom!"

It's In the Dictionary, All Right

CONSIDERING the fact that Webster's unabridged dictionary contains around 600,000 words, it's quite natural that a strange one should show up occasionally, as in the case of a reader who submits the question: "In what respect are our undignified president and Spike Jones' 'Prof. Fiegelbaum' very much alike?" He answers it by saying: "They're both full of galimatias."

And, sure enough, that word, "galimatias," is in the unabridged dictionary, with the meaning given as "nonsense; gibberish; confused and unmeaning talk; jargon."

So that's the new word for today—fully spelled out.

Earth's Mysterious Interior

THE "WAC CORPORAL" rocket, which went 250 miles up into space and then came back to earth again, probably will never be found, in the opinion of Army ordnance officials. This is because it has driven so deeply into the earth.

It is strange that after all the years that man has lived on the earth, he knows so little of its interior. That may be one of the future fields of exploration.

Noting that slot machines are operating at Excelsior Springs, the Kansas City Star sees this as an opportunity "to get cleaned without going to the baths."

One observer concludes: "The hardest job a child has these days is to learn good manners without seeing any."

Time to be planning that home garden.

Lewis Rampages Again

By THOMAS L. STOKES

FOR ALL his services to his own United Mine Workers—and they have been many and substantial—John L. Lewis has, unfortunately, been an evil genius for the rest of labor and the cause of labor in recent years.

Every so often, on one pretext or another, he beetles his bulgy eyebrows, shakes his shaggy locks and thunderously defies the President of the United States or Congress or some other official or branch of the government and proceeds dictatorially to use the power of coal to paralyze industry and terrify householders at his personal whim.

He becomes then, ipso facto, the symbol of the misuse of labor power. Too often his fake olympian rages have come just at a time when they could be exploited by those interests which would cripple labor.

This has happened often in recent years. If he planned it that way, he could serve the enemies of labor no more effectively. They cherish him privately and chortle over his antics, but denounce him publicly and demand that labor and its leaders be brought to bay and regulated more strictly.

How much of a one-man problem he has made himself was clearly revealed on the very first day of public hearings by the Senate labor committee a few weeks ago on substitute administration proposals for the Taft-Hartley Act. Secretary of Labor Tobin was asked, right off, in effect:

"What about John Lewis? Will this take care of him?"

Some senators expressed doubt that administration proposals were sufficient to handle Mr. Lewis. In other words, the approach immediately was toward class legislation—the class being John L. Lewis, who is admittedly a class all by himself.

Secretary Tobin somewhat timidly ventured that John Lewis might be amenable to public opinion. But John seems to be the same John of old.

For now he has called out his miners on a sit-down strike against President Truman and the United States Senate at what turns out to be the proper psychological moment for the enemies of labor.

Now pending before the Senate is the labor bill recently reported by its labor committee which repeals the Taft-Hartley Law and embodies milder provisions proposed by the administration. John Lewis again is capitalized as the terrible example of why Congress should be much tougher.

* * *

Grievance Is Personal.

HIS grievance this time is personal, and not for the first time. He called out his miners in protest against President Truman's appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the bureau of mines of the interior department, now pending before the Senate.

HE has prevented action on this appointment for two years. During that time President Truman has repeatedly given recess appointments to Dr. Boyd who has been serving without pay.

IT is suspected that Lewis is really shooting over Dr. Boyd's head at Secretary of Interior Krug with whom the United Mine Workers chieftain has tangled during frequent mine shutdowns, as well as at President Truman who has refused to truckle to the union leader.

The Senate interior and insular affairs committee struck back promptly at Mr. Lewis by reporting favorably the nomination of Dr. Boyd.

His bulldozing tactics may have a similar effect on the Senate, itself. But the mine leader still remains the whipping boy for those who want to make few, if any, changes in the Taft-Hartley Law.

He was so used very advantageously when the Taft-Hartley Law was written originally, for he was acting up conveniently then.

Frankly Speaking

When Majority Splits

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — President Truman and his Democratic party are beginning to look like lost leaders.

This happened in congress in the past few days while Mr. Truman was vacationing in Florida:

1. His civil rights program for Negroes was about hopelessly wrecked.

2. His nomination of his personal friend, Mon C. Wallgren, as chairman of the National Security Resources Board, was shoved aside.

3. His rent control program was shot full of holes.

It might have been the same if he were here, for in both House and Senate his lieutenants lost control.

What will happen to the rest of the program Mr. Truman promised the voters last fall? It's anybody's guess. What's wrong? Nothing mysterious.

The members of the Democratic party have a majority in Congress. This would seem to give them control. It would, if they thought the same or stuck together. They don't.

Roughly, there are two kinds of Democrats: The Trumanites who follow the President; and the southern Democrats who go their own way and vote against the other Democrats any time they please.

When they do this, they team up with the Republicans who are in a minority and puts the Trumanites in a minority. That's what has been happening.

★

How It Works Out.

HERE are the figures:

In the Senate — 54 Democrats, 42 Republicans. Total senators: 96. But at least 20 of the Democ ats are southerners. When the 20 switch over to the Republicans, that leaves 34 Trumanites against 62 opponents.

In the House — 263 Democrats, 171 Republicans, and one American Labor party member. At least 100 of the Democrats are southerners. When they join the Republicans, that's 271 against 163 Trumanites.

This is why the rejoicing of the Trumanites over last fall's Democratic victory was pretty hollow. It was a victory on paper — and only so long as the southerners play along with the Trumanites.

On the civil rights program, the southern Democrats parted company with the Trumanites and set out to wreck it with a filibuster.

Caught in this meat-chopper, the Trumanites in the Senate looked pitiful. That is not an exaggeration.

The Democrats outnumber the Republicans 7 to 6 on the Senate committee which is considering the Wallgren nomination. The Senate must approve before he can have the NSRB job.

But the committee vote to push aside Wallgren's nomination was 7 to 6. What happened? Senator Byrd of Virginia, southern Democrat, threw his vote in with the six Republicans against Wallgren.

In the House the rent control bill favored by Mr. Truman was pulled out of shape like taffy, although the Democrats have a big majority in the House. The Senate may patch it up a bit. It can't become law without Senate approval.

What does it all mean? Only this: Any time the Republicans and southern Democrats want to wreck the Truman program, they can do it by teaming up.

This makes the Democratic party, as a party, look sick. It sure does.

Mysterious American Disturbs Soviet

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — Uncensored diplomatic reports indicated that the Soviet government is planning to place before the United Nations the strange case of an American citizen reported to be the leader of the anti-Russian underground in Poland and Germany.

The mysterious American, who owns a farm twelve miles outside Hillman, Minn., operates under various names including Edward F. T'Kach, Count Heinrich Von Gelbe, Baron von Tanthen, Heinrich Woyceho, Dr. Edouard von Rothkirch, or sometimes just Baron X.

According to associates, he is the head of the Frei Corps of Barbarossa, the name of the anti-Russian underground in parts of Poland and the Soviet zone of Germany. Baron X has raised considerable amounts of money in the United States and is reputed to have smuggled arms and ammunition into the Soviet areas via Austria and Scandinavian ports.

He is also reported to have terrorized Soviet officials and been a constant thorn in the side of the Russian government in these areas.

U. S. officials have made it clear, however, that Baron X has no connection whatsoever with the U. S. government. On the contrary, they have frowned on his activities and fear he may cause serious trouble between the United States and Russia.

For that reason, the state department has consistently refused any passport. His wife, who was reached by telephone at Hillman, Minn., under the name of Mrs. von Rothkirch, said that her husband had left by car and was driving to New York.

She said he went away for long periods of time during which she did not hear from him. She declined to comment on his activities in Germany except to say: "I know that the Soviets have found out about him."

In Cleveland, one of von Rothkirch's lieutenants, Wilhelm Ullenhorst-Zeichmenn, said that von Rothkirch was head of the Frei Corps of Barbarossa, and that he had gone back and forth to Germany without an official passport. Other quarters reported that von Rothkirch had used merchant seaman's papers.

The mysterious "Baron" served for a time with the German Luftwaffe in Spain during the Spanish revolution, then entered the U. S. Army after Pearl Harbor. For a time he also served as chief bosun's mate in the U. S. Coast Guard in a temporary, nonpaying capacity. At that time he used the name T'Kach.

* * *

Where He Got Money.

IN 1946, he registered under the name of Edward von Rothkirch as a lobbyist for the Central European Research Council, and was active on Capitol Hill among isolationist congressmen and congressmen of German descent.

He was also connected in 1946 with the Central European Rehabilitation Association, with headquarters at 201 Division Ave., Brooklyn, and headed by Father Don Odo, self-proclaimed Duke of Wurttemberg.

Some indication as to where Baron X has been able to raise his funds may be had from the fact that the assets of the Central European Rehabilitation Association in the Riggs National Bank jumped from $5 to $169,000 in less than a year in 1946-47. It is believed that some of these funds were drawn on to finance underground operations in Soviet areas in central Europe.

Baron X is reputed to have the best intelligence service inside the Russian areas—despite the large amounts of money spent on intelligence by the U. S. government since the war.

He is also reported to have intimate contacts inside Czechoslovakia, Austria and Hungary.

U. S. records show that von Rothkirch's father was born in Odessa, Russia, under the name of Fred T'Kach, and that his mother was also born in Odessa in 1897. Von Rothkirch himself was born in St. Paul, Minn.

EX-SECRETARY of State George Marshall is so peeved at War Plans Chief Gen. Al Wedemeyer he has privately threatened to speak against him if Wedemeyer is nominated to succeed General Clay in Germany...Other likely candidate to succeed Clay is Gen. Mark Clark, former commander of the 5th Army in Italy...There was something very fishy about the delay in confirming Ernest Gruening as governor of Alaska. The salmon lobby was agin' him...At first Secretary of State Acheson was inclined to overlook the pro-nazi board of governors selected to govern the Ruhr steel industry until he saw a blistering cartoon in the Washington Post. Then he cabled Clay to oust the pro-nazis...Hitherto Clay has run Germany as he wished. It will be interesting to see whether Clay or Acheson now wins out.

Congratulations to Sam P. McKenzie and the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Atlanta for urging that Atlanta pass laws banning KKK masks in public...Bulletproof glass may be built around the Senate and House galleries as the result of the suicide 50 feet from the Senate chamber last week. Some nervous solons now want protection from trigger-happy spectators...The agriculture department is warning that all the West from Michigan to California and from Canada to Texas will be hit by grasshoppers this summer. Deep snow protected grasshoppers' eggs and, as a result, the worst plague in ten years is expected. In 1938 grasshoppers ate a $200,000,000 hole in farmers' pockets.

Assignment: America

From Texas to Berlin

By INEZ ROBB

SAN ANTONIO, Texas — "Operation vittles" is such a vast, Paul Bunyan effort that I might have known it had one foot — or wing, rather, — firmly planted in Texas.

"We just keep the Berlin airlift going, Ma'am," is the modest boast of men at Kelly air force base, as old Kelly field has been rechristened.

And, bless me, so they do! Most of those big C-54s flying food and fuel into the German Capital are getting there on engines, electrical equipment, processed propellers, landing gear and control surfaces rebuilt and repaired at Kelly air force base.

To me, it seems a fer piece down the road from San Antonio in Texas to Berlin in Germany — about 6000 miles as an air force crow flies.

But Kelly air force base is the machine and repair shop — if the air force will forgive me for putting it in language a civilian can understand — for "operations vittles."

It is, in short, the nearest American power house or air force machine shop capable of handling such a huge repair job as must be maintained constantly to keep the big bridge of C-54s flying into Berlin on their 3-minute split schedule.

At the moment, the base is rebuilding 340 engines (2000 h.p. jobs) per month for the air lift. It has rebuilt as many as 550 per month. "Vittles" has the hightest priority rating of any work at the base. Everything else goes by the boards, if necessary, or waits on completion of airlift problems.

Forty percent of all the work on this base, with its vast machine shops covering acres of ground, is for the Berlin airlift. Approximately 2400 of the 6000 mechanics at work here are dealing with some phase of "operations vittles."

"As far as maintenance is concerned, we keep the airlift going," said Major John Murphy, assistant director of maintenance at the base. "The big engines are flown here from Germany for repair, but that is really only a small part of the maintenance work we do.

"For instance, we repair all of the communications equipment, both radar and radio. We process propellers and repair all electrical equipment. We furnish the air lift personnel with clothing from this base, and we repair and pack all parachutes here."

* * *

Fascinating Operations

INDEED, Murphy said, keeping "vittles" planes flying is only a part of the tremendous Berlin airlift operations centered at this Texas base 6000 miles from Germany.

Air force freight planes hauling "operation vittles" supplies to American ports of embarkation, where goods are then put aboard ship, are also kept flying by this base.

The tremendous machine shop where "vittles" engines are repaired on an assembly line system is a fascinating place, even to a woman like myself who has never been able to understand any mechanical gimmick more complicated than the old-fashioned rotary egg-beater.

The engines are completely taken apart at one end of the shop, like a kid taking apart a Christmas watch with a hammer. The small parts are put in wire trays and hung on the slow moving assembly line. The big parts are hung directly on the line.

Then the dirty, greasy parts move into a steam bath. When they emerge, they are as shining and pristine as a new aluminum percolator. They still move slowly — hardly perceptibly — along the assembly line.

And somehow, by some miracle I do not understand, young geniuses in coveralls begin putting the engines together again, all the big parts and all the little nuts and bolts. It all comes out even in the end, with nothing missing.

After the engines are tested, they are flown back to Berlin. And in a matter of days, another engine rebuilt in Texas is helping power "operations vittles."

Dave Boone Says:

EINSTEIN was 70 years old last Monday. He's the world's greatest mathematician, but he picked a bad day for general recognition. On the day before March 15th there were millions of Americans trying to prove they are faster with figures, if not so reliable.

* * *

Dr. Einstein is famous for having brains, and using them. And in this world of today he is one of the very few men who is at all conspicuous in that respect.

* * *

The more you look around, study the behavior and listen to the words of people on all levels and in all positions of responsibility at the moment, the more you realize what a novelty a man who uses his brain is.

* * *

I wonder how it feels to be like the professor, all alone in a world of filibusters, ultimatums, hatreds, arguments, cockeyed speeches, stickups, wire-tappings. Pyramid contests, jack pots and questions like "What explorer discovered the Hudson river?"

Muskrats By Moonlight

By CALVIN A. BYERS

OUR SWAMP has more muskrats than usual this year. Thick heavy crust of muck and matted roots and grasses affords cover under which the rodents live a secluded and peaceful life.

The other evening—a crisp moonlit night—I walked down along the swamp, when I noticed two big muskrats upon a white barkless log that had drifted and lodged during a freshet. They vanished as I approached, but I stopped and waited, hidden in shadow, to see what they might be up to.

A small pile of clean white calamus roots lay upon the rounded surface of the log. As I looked on, the muskrats reappeared with loads of roots in mouth and forepaws. They seemed to wash and nibble them to perfect whiteness, dipping them into the water at the log's edge. Then each took a mouthful and disappeared into the watery lane that led to a raised domelike mound of daubed reeds — their home and fortress.

Why should they store up calamus at this time of year, I asked myself? Is it to feed their young ones? Or is it better now than when the ground is deep frozen? And why should they work by moon-light? For safety, perhaps.

Muskrats are the largest type of furry mice. They belong to the group of rodents—animals that gnaw for food. All rodents have four chisel-shaped incisors in the front of their mouth, and flaps of cheek skin that are used for holding food not intended for immediate swallowing.

An Indian trick, as related by an old lady whose family helped pioneer our valley, was to thrust a stick through the top of a muskrat mound, and watch for movements beneath the dome.

If the stick moved, the place would be returned to, later, for muskrat fur. It seems the Indians would travel south farther every fall, and return here in the spring to get their furs. Honey Creek was a part of their regular itinerary. Occasional mounds mark their graves and their trails became roads and where their campfires used to leap and glow, now are villages.

Conveyor Plan Scored In Bucyrus

Council Opposes Belt Proposal

BUCYRUS — City council went on record at its meeting Tuesday night as opposed to construction of the $250,000,000 grain and ore conveyor belt in eastern Ohio.

The action was taken after W. N. Clark, New York Central railroad trainmaster, here, appeared before council and urged councilmen to oppose bills, pending in the Ohio senate and house, which would authorize construction of the conveyor belt.

Clark claimed that construction of the conveyor belt would mean complete abandonment of the Ohio Central lines of the NYC within three years and pointed out the NYC employs 600 locally.

Council also passed a resolution authorizing Service Director W. F. Pfleiderer to construct a new pump house at the city's Plymouth road reservoir to replace the shed, which was destroyed by fire this week. Pfleiderer estimated the new pump house, which will be concrete block structure, would cost about $2,000. The old shed was valued at about $500.

Service Director Pfleiderer also was authorized to advertise for bids for purchase of a street sweeper, at an estimated cost of between $6,500 and $9,000, and to sell some junk, which had accumulated in the city service department.

Annual report of operations of of Bucyrus City hospital showed that the institution made a profit of $5,000 during 1948. Receipts totaled $151,511 while expenditures amounted to $146,404. A total of 2,354 persons were admitted to the hospital last year. Operations totaled 1,272. There were 86 deaths in the hospital in 1948, the report disclosed.

Ranchers, stockmen and state agriculture officials estimated today that more than half a million cattle and sheep died in the blizzards of 1949, but experts said there would be no meat shortage.

Despite the fact that this winter's livestock losses were among the heaviest in history, they were expected to have little effect on the nation's overall meat supply.

Belated Winter, Strike Give Spurt to City Coal Business

The late arrival of winter weather has been a headache to many Mansfield merchants, but coal dealers are not among them.

Most coal dealers reported a spurt in business last week and this. Dealers said the increase in orders ranged from 25 to 200 per cent.

They explained when below freezing temperatures finally arrived after an exceptionally mild winter, many Mansfielders found their coal supply was inadequate.

Many, who had delayed putting in more coal because they hoped that half-ton would last until spring weather arrived, were caught short last week.

However, some dealers said they had noticed no marked increase in business and that most of their customers were only ordering one ton at a time.

A few Mansfielders became alarmed at news of the coal strike and placed orders immediately. One dealer said he thought some of his customers were buying coal they didn't need because they feared the strike would last longer than two weeks.

But most dealers attributed the recent increase in business to cold weather, not news of the strike.

Never Too Late To Learn

Cappy Miller's young son, Squint, is forever coming up with new ideas. Now they're not all world beaters, but Cappy is usually willing to give them a try.

Seems Squint found a new way to clear brush. They take two tractors, about thirty feet apart, and connect them with a heavy chain weighted down on the ground with old iron. First they both go parallel in one direction, then they go back over the same swath in the opposite direction and up comes the brush—roots and all. Worked fine and saved time.

That's why things go so well at the Miller farm. Cappy is open-minded, tolerant of new ideas and new ways of doing. He doesn't think his way is the only way.

From where I sit, a little tolerance will make things go better for all of us. You respect my views and I'll respect yours—whether it's on farming, politics, or choosing between an ice cream soda or a temperate glass of beer.

Pacific War Would Find U. S. Weak

Russian Fleet Being Expanded

TOKYO — (AP) — Sudden war in the western Pacific would find Russia with a larger fleet than the United States.

The Soviet Far Eastern fleet—increased since the end of the war—now includes six cruisers, a number of destroyers and between 72 and 100 submarines of all types. Construction or the assembly of new craft is continuing at Vladivostok.

This is far less than the mammoth fleet assembled by Japan before the Pacific war American naval officers also are inclined to agree with Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall's recent opinion the Soviet fleet is far behind the times.

Nevertheless, there is a feeling in naval circles that the vast job of keeping the sea lanes open from Hawaii to beyond the Indian ocean is being done on a shoestring

The strongest American force in this area is the western Pacific fleet under Vice Adm. Oscar Badger now in China waters. Its future disposition depends on events.

A small force of destroyers and minesweepers operates from Japan as part of the Far East command under Vice Adm. Russell S Berkey, His command includes the Pacific islands stretching from here to the Philippines.

Even with this small force, U. S. Navy strength out here is being reduced—partly in line with the "Europe first" strategy. Key officers say they have lost the services of a cruiser and failed in an effort to obtain another destroyer division. This results from a recent Washington order cutting the Pacific fleet cruisser strength by 50 per cent and destroyers by 25 per cent.

The skeleton bases in the Philippines and Okinawa will be reduced further for reasons of economy.

Pearl Harbor in Hawaii remains the key of Pacific naval strategy—linked by comparative mobility to Asiatic outposts.

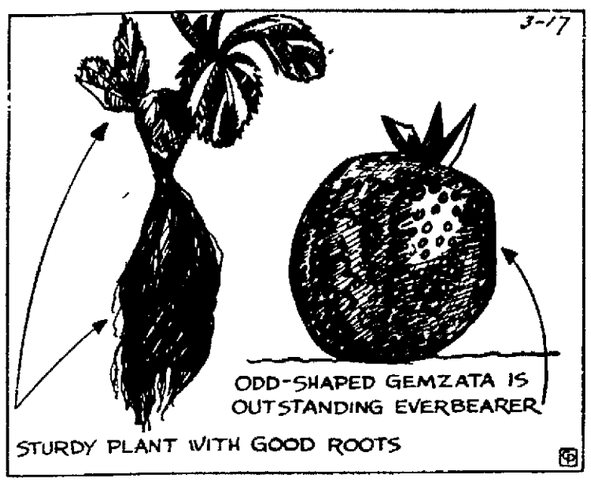
New Strawberries 'Quicker'



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(By Cental Press)

Plant 'em and pick'em the first season is one of the claims for the newer everbearing strawberries

Among the newcomers is Gemzata, which is hailed as the outstanding everbearer to date. It is a recent introduction and was developed from a cross of the Gem and Wayzata berries.

Gemzata's odd-shaped fruit is illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph The berries are large and delicious and are borne in abundance on strong, healthy plants, which produce well the first season. The foliage is not subject to leaf spot and produces many runner plants on almost any average soil.

Streamliner, which was introduced last year, is another popular everbearing strawberry. It commences to bear about 50 days after planting and continues to bear the second year as well as the first It is extremely sweet The foliage is free of disease

Another new everbearer which will produce berries 90 days after planting is Superfection, which was originated in northern Michigan. Its berries are large and tend to be round in shape They are deep red all the way through

Not new, but tried and reliable, is the giant Mastodon which is still a leader among everbearing strawberries because it also produces berries three months after planting. It requires good fertile soil and if given this and good cultivation the plants will continue to produce fruit until frost comes

In selecting strawberry plants make sure the starting foliage is sturdy and that each plant has good roots, as illustrated.

Keefer Gets Manager's Job

Carl W Keefer, 466 Daisy street, has been appointed manager of the Richland county zone of American Diversified Investors, Inc, formerly the Investors Syndicate, E L Horn, divisional manager of the company's 11-county area surrounding Mansfield, announced today

Keefer graduated from the College of Business Administration at Kent State university in December with a major in accounting and finance, and has been with the company since January He is a native Mansfielder and is a veteran of World War II

Claims Reds Peril Labor

WASHINGTON —, (INS) — William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared yesterday communist influence in the labor movement has increased in the past year.

Testifying before a House labor subcommittee, Green blamed the communist gains on growing "discontent and dissatisfaction" among workers caused by the Taft-Hartley law.

He urged immediate repeal of the statute and enactment of the administration bill to restore a modified Wagner act.

Rep McConnell (R) Pa., challenged Green's assertion that unions is on the upgrade. He said published reports on recent union elections showed "the communists are taking a beating."

Washington, D. C. has the nation's greatest total of licensed taxicabs per capita. The 987,000 persons in the district are served by 9,024 cabs, or one cab for every 109 residents.

Army Recruiting Personnel Cut to Third In City

'One-Day Service' Will End

Officers Get Transfers Soon

Personnel of the Army recruiting area with headquarters at 20 South Park street will soon be cut to seven — a third of its present strength, Army officials said today. Effective date of the cut was not announced

The Mansfield Army recruiting center was increased to its present size with a personnel of 21 a year ago April 1, when the Army offered a "one-day service" of turning civilians into soldiers at the local recruiting office without having to be sent to a larger center for their physicals and inductions.

Under the ordered cut-back of personnel, the Mansfield Army center will once again send enlistees to Columbus or Cleveland for their processing

The four officers now on duty in this 11-county area will be transferred to some other station for duty, and eight of the enlisted men stationed here will be given new assignments.

The Mansfield office for the area employs two civilian stenographers, who will also be released when the slash in personnel becomes effective

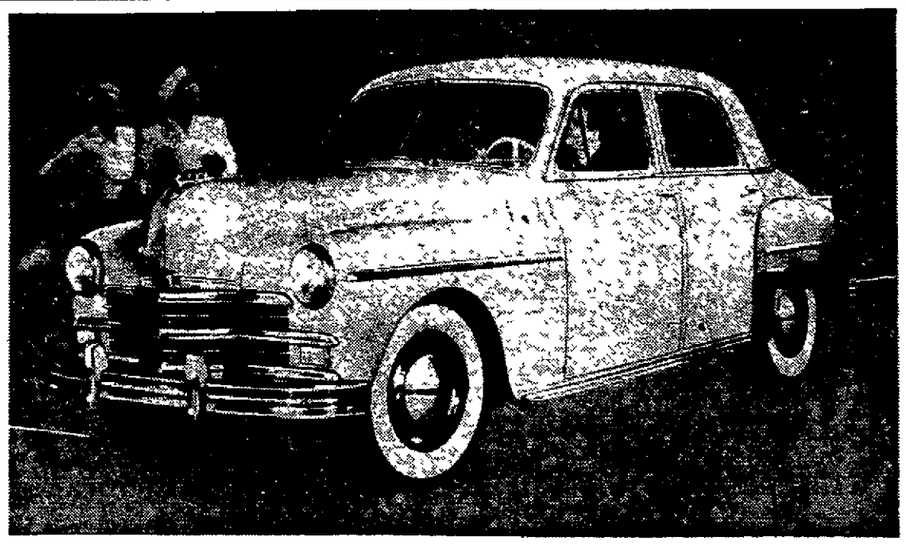
Before moving to its present quarters where it now offers the "one-day service," the unit was housed in the Post Office building.

Crawford Takes Mt. Vernon Post

The Holland Furnace company, 48 South Mulberry street, today announced the appointment of Robert J. Crawford, 541 Cline avenue, as branch manager in charge of the Mt. Vernon office of the company. Crawford plans to move to Mt. Vernon as soon as he can find a place to live.

He is a graduate of Lucas high school and has lived most of his life in Mansfield. Crawford has been associated with the Mansfield office of the furnace company since April, 1946.

He is the third man to be promoted from the Mansfield office within the past year. The other two were John F. Deuschle, now branch manager at Fremont, and Frank Green, now manager at Lansing, Mich.



PLYMOUTH DISPLAYED FRIDAY—The 1949 Plymouth will be displayed Friday at Schonauer Motor Sales, 113 West Fourth street, and Colby and Earick, 225 North Main street. Featuring a re-designed body style and a motor increased to 97 horsepower, the new Plymouth also presents greater riding comfort with a wheelbase lengthened to 118 inches and more head and leg room for the passenger. Parking ease and road safety have been engineered into the new car with a shorter over-all length and a narrower body.

Waiting Lines Forming for Enlistees Over 18 Years Old

So you want to join the Marines and see the world. Or maybe the Army, Air Force, or Navy.

If you're over 18 years old, chances are you'll have to go on a waiting list.

The Marine Corps reports it is discontinuing regular three and four year enlistments for the present time and the other three services are on a strict monthly quota basis.

But, eighteen year olds can enlist in any branch of the service for one year.

Upon completion of the one year enlistment, men are required to join some reserve branch of the armed forces for six years. An Army man would go into Company F of the local National Guard unit or the Army organized Reserve; Air Force, Navy, and Marine men would go into the 164th Fighter squadron (also of the National guard), the Naval Reserve unit, or the Volunteer Marine Reserve, respectively.

While in the reserve group, men receive additional training in their respective military fields and are advanced in rank as if they were still on active duty.

An important feature of the reserve training units, brought out by Capt. R. M Flynn, unit instructor of the Mansfield Army Organized Reserve, is that men may now retire from the reserve units at the end of 20 years just as if they had been on active duty.

Retirement benefits are less, of course, than those of men on active duty.

'Ship Jumpers' Surrender Selves

NEWARK —(AP)— Forty-three Polish seamen, including two women, who jumped ship in the port of New York in the past six months, begged immigration officers today not to return them to their homeland behind the iron curtain.

The former crew members of the Polish liners Batory and Sobieski surrendered voluntarily to immigration authorities and were released early yesterday in custody of sympathetic Polish-Americans.

Live Side By Side, Suffer Same Hurts

CLEVELAND — (AP) — In the village of Geauga Lake, George Hahn, 23, and William McVeigh are next door neighbors Last Saturday Hahn was struck by an automobile as he crossed Miles avenue near Lee road, on Cleveland's east side.

Yesterday, at the same spot, the same thing happened to McVeigh. Hahn's leg was broken, but McVeigh's injuries were confined to lacerations.

Blame Housing For Problem

Emphasizing the need for cooperation between school and home, parents and teachers, and pupils and parents, Mrs. Lucille Lowry, visiting teacher of the guidance department of Mansfield Public School, spoke Wednesday afternoon to members of the Mothers club of Rebecca Grubaugh at their regular monthly meeting held in the school gymnasium.

Mrs. Lowry illustrated her work by giving case histories covering schedule adjustments for students, truancy, need for medical or relief assistance, need for clothing or homes, or acting as middlemen for children in court actions.

She pointed out that one of the chief causes of children becoming a problem is their housing. Many of the cases brought to the attention of her department are from unsanitary and overcrowded locations, Mrs. Lowry said.

Many of these families frequently change their addresses, which creates a serious schooling problem Broken homes also contribute to the feeling of insecurity for children which is reflected in their school work, their attendance, and their stability," Mrs Lowry explained.

Mrs Lowry also stressed that too much money and attention can also create a disturbing element.

The guidance department is a part of the educational system and works directly from Supt. W. L. Miller's office. Assisting Miller in his work are Dr. Edwin Fench, psychologist, John Eisaman, attendance officer, and two visiting teachers, Mrs. Lowry and Helen Joyce.

They work in all public schools and assist students with any type of problem.

Prior to Mrs. Lowry's talk, the students of Miss Leona Miles' Fifth grade gave a three act safety play entitled "Mr. Careless Foiled Again."

The thought for the day was read by Mrs. Charles Coup

During the business meeting, under the president, Mrs. Stanley Harper, the report of the nominating committee for officers for the coming year was accepted, as follows:

Mrs. Charles Coup, president; Mrs. Raymond Beal, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Robert Fair, secretary; Mrs. Charles Duff, treasurer.

Army Recruiting Personnel Cut to Third In City

'One-Day Service' Will End

Officers Get Transfers Soon

Personnel of the Army recruiting area with headquarters at 20 South Park street will soon be cut to seven — a third of its present strength, Army officials said today. Effective date of the cut was not announced

The Mansfield Army recruiting center was increased to its present size with a personnel of 21 a year ago April 1, when the Army offered a "one-day service" of turning civilians into soldiers at the local recruiting office without having to be sent to a larger center for their physicals and inductions.

The Mansfield office for the area employs two civilian stenographers, who will also be released when the slash in personnel becomes effective

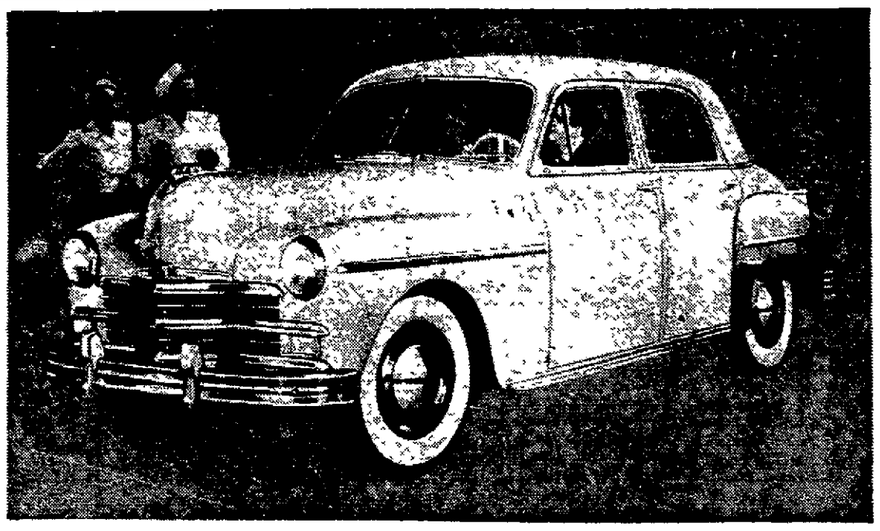
Crawford Takes Mt. Vernon Post

The Holland Furnace company, 48 South Mulberry street, today announced the appointment of Robert J. Crawford, 541 Cline avenue, as branch manager in charge of the Mt. Vernon office of the company. Crawford plans to move to Mt. Vernon as soon as he can find a place to live

He is a graduate of Lucas high school and has lived most of his life in Mansfield. Crawford has been associated with the Mansfield office of the furnace company since April, 1946

He is the third man to be promoted from the Mansfield office within the past year. The other two were John F. Deuschle, now branch manager at Fremont, and Frank Green, now manager at Lansing, Mich.



PLYMOUTH DISPLAYED FRIDAY—The 1949 Plymouth will be displayed Friday at Schonauer Motor Sales, 113 West Fourth street, and Colby and Earick, 225 North Main street. Featuring a re-designed body style and a motor increased to 97 horsepower, the new Plymouth also presents greater riding comfort with a wheelbase lengthened to 118 inches and more head and leg room for the passenger. Parking ease and road safety have been engineered into the new car with a shorter over-all length and a narrower body.

Waiting Lines Forming for Enlistees Over 18 Years Old

So you want to join the Marines and see the world. Or maybe the Army, Air Force, or Navy.

If you're over 18 years old, chances are you'll have to go on a waiting list.

The Marine Corps reports it is discontinuing regular three and four year enlistments for the present time and the other three services are on a strict monthly quota basis.

But, eighteen year olds can enlist in any branch of the service for one year.

Upon completion of the one year enlistment, men are required to join some reserve branch of the armed forces for six years An Army man would go into Company F of the local National Guard unit or the Army organized Reserve; Air Force, Navy, and Marine men would go into the 164th Fighter squadron (also of the National guard), the Naval Reserve unit, or the Volunteer Marine Reserve, respectively.

While in the reserve group, men receive additional training in their respective military fields and are advanced in rank as if they were still on active duty.

An important feature of the reserve training units, brought out by Capt. R. M. Flynn, unit instructor of the Mansfield Army Organized Reserve, is that men may now retire from the reserve units at the end of 20 years just as if they had been on active duty.

Retirement benefits are less, of course, than those of men on active duty

'Ship Jumpers' Surrender Selves

NEWARK —(UP)— Forty-three Polish seamen, including two women, who jumped ship in the port of New York in the past six months, begged immigration officers today not to return them to their homeland behind the iron curtain

The former crew members of the Polish liners Batory and Sobieski surrendered voluntarily to immigration authorities and were released early yesterday in custody of sympathetic Polish-Americans

Live Side By Side, Suffer Same Hurts

CLEVELAND — (AP) — In the village of Geauga Lake, George Hahn, 23, and William McVeigh are next door neighbors Last Saturday Hahn was struck by an automobile as he crossed Miles avenue near Lee road, on Cleveland's east side.

Yesterday, at the same spot, the same thing happened to McVeigh. Hahn's leg was broken, but McVeigh's injuries were confined to lacerations.

Blame Housing For Problem

Emphasizing the need for cooperation between school and home, parents and teachers, and pupils and parents, Mrs. Lucille Lowry, visiting teacher of the guidance department of Mansfield Public School, spoke Wednesday afternoon to members of the Mothers club of Rebecca Grubaugh at their regular monthly meeting held in the school gymnasium.

Mrs. Lowry illustrated her work by giving case histories covering schedule adjustments for students, truancy, need for medical or relief assistance, need for clothing or homes, or acting as middlemen for children in court actions

She pointed out that one of the chief causes of children becoming a problem is their housing. Many of the cases brought to the attention of her department are from unsanitary and overcrowded locations, Mrs. Lowry said.

Many of these families frequently change their addresses, which creates a serious schooling problem. Broken homes also contribute to the feeling of insecurity for children which is reflected in their school work, their attendance, and their stability," Mrs Lowry explained

Mrs Lowry also stressed that too much money and attention can also create a disturbing element.

The guidance department is a part of the educational system and works directly from Supt. W. L. Miller's office. Assisting Miller in his work are Dr. Edwin Fench, psychologist, John Eisaman, attendance officer, and two visiting teachers, Mrs. Lowry and Helen Joyce.

They work in all public schools and assist students with any type of problem

Prior to Mrs. Lowry's talk, the students of Miss Leona Miles' Fifth grade gave a three act safety play entitled "Mr Careless Foiled Again"

The thought for the day was read by Mrs. Charles Coup

During the business meeting, under the president, Mrs Stanley Harper, the report of the nominating committee for officers for the coming year was accepted, as follows

Mrs. Charles Coup, president, Mrs. Raymond Beal, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Robert Fair, secretary; Mrs. Charles Duff, treasurer.

Here's Proof that a Clapp-fed Baby is a Well-fed Baby!

WAY BACK IN 1934... a special Clapp's Baby Foods test began in Westfield, N. J. Little Gregory Hovendon, picked for this test, was fed Clapp's exclusively! Here he is at 4 months—chubby and perky—thriving on his nourishing Clapp's Cereals. Soon it's Clapp's Strained Vegetables for him!

A FUTURE SPORTS ANNOUNCER? Perhaps! Fourteen-year-old Gregory's love of sports and desire to be a sports commentator reflect his brimming, robust health! A good part of this is undoubtedly due to his excellent early diet He's a fine example that a Clapp-fed baby is a well-fed baby!

Give your baby these vitamin-full, mineral-rich, luscious fruits and vegetables!

Want a well-fed, thriving baby in your house?

Give your baby the fine nourishment of Clapp's Baby Foods . . . the baby foods that are pressure-cooked to help keep their vitamins and minerals and delicious fresh flavors!

Today, order half a dozen—soups, vegetables, meat-and-vegetable combinations, fruits, and desserts.

THE NEW Plymouth-on display Friday

Now there's more difference than ever in low-priced cars . . . and the great New Plymouth makes the difference!

New Beauty

There's beauty in every sweeping new low line of it—and throughout its brilliant new interior And this is beauty that's built on advanced engineering . . to give you a great new automobile that handles easier, rides smoother, performs better—the greatest in a long line of great Plymouths!

New Vision

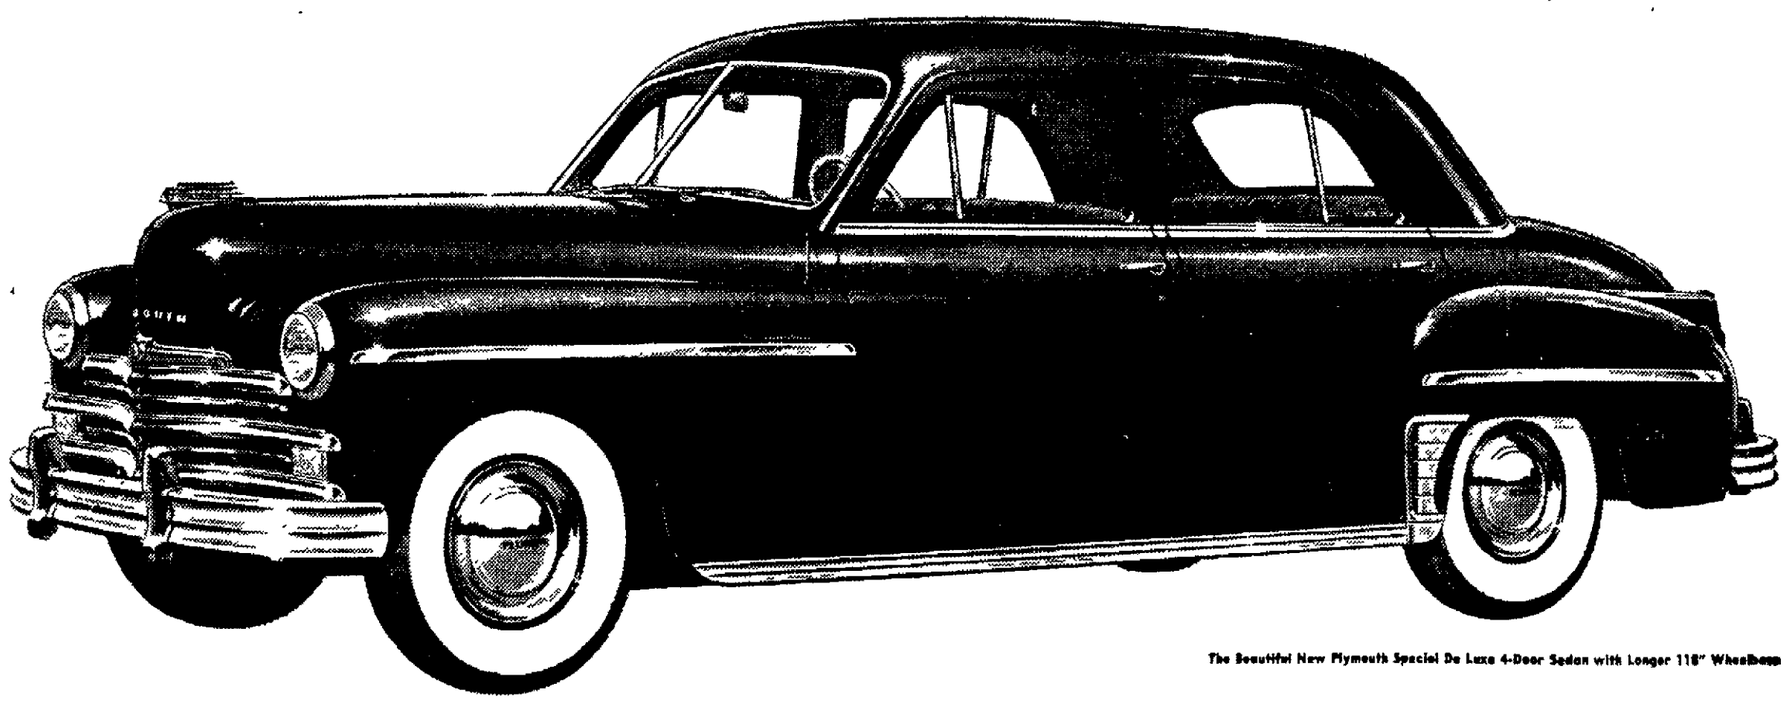
The greatly increased glass area is exactly where you need it—in the windshield and rear window. And the new design of the hood and the entire body gives the driver a clear, undistorted view of the road—in all directions—day or night—rain or shine! Blind spots are practically eliminated.

New Features

You just turn the ignition key and the engine starts! No buttons to push, no choke to pull. You save on oil and get longer engine life with new oil control piston rings and the brand-new chrome compression ring These are just two of the great new features in the great New Plymouth.

New Comfort

Talk about room for comfort—the New Plymouth has it! Those famous chair-height seats are now even wider, and deeper from front to back. Long legs can stretch out and hats stay put. Diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers reduce sidesway. You drive for hours without fatigue.



The Beautiful New Plymouth Special De Luxe 4-Door Sedan with Longer 118" Wheelbase

New Safety

Safety has always been first with Plymouth—and this new car is safer than ever! It has a lower center of gravity It hugs the road better. A completely new body construction makes it a sturdier automobile. Body and frame are 23% more rigid. You drive with a great new sense of security.

New Convenience

Because of less overhang, the New Plymouth is easy to park, easy to put in the garage Fenders flow into the body but they're separate and detachable—and it doesn't cost a fortune to repair them! Windows lift and lower easier Doors open wide—you get in and out of this car with ease!

New Performance

There's greater power in the New Plymouth engine. This comes from a newly designed cylinder head, a higher compression ratio and a new intake manifold. When you step on it, you'll instantly feel this new surge of power. Here's the best performer of all the great performing Plymouths!

Greatest New Value

The only way to discover all of the great new things in the great New Plymouth is to see it—to sit in it—to drive it Do this and you'll be convinced that—feature for feature—dollar for dollar—here's the greatest value of all! Compare it to any car at any price See it NOW!

Women's Institute To Be Held At Ohio State University

Mrs. Ambrose Middleton, 611 Park avenue west, will be among 500 Ohio women, active in the civic and social affairs of their communities, who will attend the first annual "Women's Institute" on the campus of Ohio State university, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

At that time the group, invited for the occasion, will consider ways for making a greater contribution to society. The event also celebrates the 75th anniversary of the school.

Theme of the event is "Some Guide Lines to Better Living —A Consideration of the Yard Beyond Our Gates."

Discussion groups during the three-day institute will deal with three major fields: health, education and leisure-time activities, according to Dean of Women Christine Y. Conaway, general chairman. Authorities in these fields will introduce the subject matter to be considered. During discussion periods the participants will have the benefit of expert leadership and the latest in visual aids and other materials.

Introducing the subject of community health will be Dr. John D. Porterfield, state health director. The problems of modern schools will be presented by Dean Donald P. Cottrell of Ohio State's College of Education. Dr. Ann Paterson, professor in Ohio State's Department of Physical Education for Women, will give the orientation address on leisure-time activities.

Three general sessions in the University Hall chapel, will bring the several hundred delegates together for addresses by leaders in the field of psychiatry, public affairs and law. Dr. Frank Ford Tallman, noted psychiatrist and member of Ohio State's Department of Neurology and Psychiatry, will speak on the subject, "Ingredients of the Good Life." The Honorable Margaret Mahoney, president pro tem of the Ohio Senate, will speak on "Women's Participation in Government," and the Honorable Judge Florence E. Allen, U. S. Circuit Court of Appears, will discuss "The Yard Beyond Our Gate."

Delegates to the institute will be housed in Baker hall dormitory, newest of the campus residence halls for women. Registrations, which must be made in advance, may be sent to the Women's Institute, Ohio State university.

Also included among those who have made reservations to attend Ohio State university's Women's Institute at Columbus are:

Richland county — Mrs. Alice Elizabeth Forbes, 42 S. School Bellville; member of Women's Missionary society of Lutheran church, WCTU, Grange, Eastern Star, Wittenberg Guild, 4-H advisor, Board of Directors of Richland Rural Life Center.

Ashland county—Mrs. Verna M. Byers, Box 144, Perrysville; member of Perrysville Federation of Women's clubs. American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 257; Order of Eastern Star — Iris chapter 250.

Crawford county—Mrs. Clarice Miriam Shearer, Martel; member of Farm Bureau, secretary of Grange president of Ladies' Aid of E U. B. church, Board of Community club, secretary of F. B. Council, and health representative of Pamona grange.

BIBLE CLUB

Members of the Ruth-Naomi Bible Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith. 224 Rowland avenue One guest, Mrs. D. W. Cummins, and a new member, Mrs. W. E. Fudge, were welcomed. Mrs. E. B. Davis led devotions and leader was Mrs. Carrie M. Locke. The next meeting will be held April 6 at the home of Mrs. J. H. Mollenkop, 82 Rowland avenue.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Friday March 18

The emphasis for this day is to be found on affairs of heart and home, with all pertaining to their embellishment, progress gratification and enjoyment. The personal element is likely to be a deciding factor in all transactions, both in connection with the domestic circle and in business ventures catering to it. Deals, finances, contracts, sales, employment, all combine personality, charm, culture and home pleasures and all should thrive and progress under most benign auspices.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, are assured a prosperous, progressive, happy and enjoyable year, in which affairs of heart and home are the objective and the inspiration. Personality, charm, culture, youth, and pleasure are not to be neglected as factors, even in putting over more or less sordid or workaday transactions. Work toward the goal of hearts desire under this impetus and inspiration.

A child born on this day will be affectionate, lovable, attractive, sensitive, easily responding to cultural influences, although also efficient in all matters relating to heart and home.

Cast of 'Mignon' Boasts Many Popular Stars of Opera

Rise Stevens, glamorous contralto of opera, concert and radio, will sing the title role in Ambroise Thomas' "Migono," which the Metropolitan Opera company will present during its twenty-fourth season, April 4 through 9 in Cleveland Public Auditorium. It will be given on Tuesday evening, April 5 and in its cast will be included such favorites as Patrice Munsel, Giuseppe De Stefano, Jerome Hines, John Garris and Osie Hawkins. The conductor will be Wilfred Pelletier.

Last presented in Cleveland in 1944, "Mignon" is known on Broadway as "Cleveland's Opera" for its restoration to the Metropolitan's repertoire this year was made possible through a gift of the Northern Ohio Opera Association, sponsors of the local season. It is the only French work to be given in the week.

To add to the comfort of patrons having main floor seats, cushions will be provided for all seats other than the arm chairs, it was announced last night by H. J. Miskell, general manager.

Other operas to be presented in the Cleveland season are Gaetano Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor," Monday evening April 4; Giuseppe Verdi's "La Traviate," Wednesday evening, April 6; Verdi's "Rigoletto," Thursday evening, April 7; Giacomo Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," Friday afternoon, April 8; Donizetti's "The Elixir of Love," Friday evening, April 8; Gioacchino Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," Saturday afternoon, April 9, and Verdi's "Otello," Saturday evening, April 9

Tickets for opera week may be ordered through W E. Jones Piano House, 146 Park Ave. West,

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

The Jolly-ette club held their seventh anniversary dinner, Tuesday evening at Scotty's Supper club with members' husbands as guests. Chairman of arrangements was Mrs. Edward Marion with Mrs. Howard Richards and Mrs. Ruth Lyon assisting. The next meeting will be held April 1 at a meeting place to be announced

Higher Lamb and Produce Prices Noted In Past Week; Fruit Prices to Climb

(By Associated Press)

Retail lamb prices climbed two to 10 cents a pound in many cities across the country this week, but most other meats were unchanged.

Lettuce and cabbage were the only major vegetables generally a little higher. Butter eased a penny or two a pound in several marketing centers. And the highlight in the crop weather news was the mid-week frost damage to peach crops in the Carolinas.

Meat buyers blamed the boost in lamb prices on light supplies. The old lamb crop is winding up, they said, and the new spring crop is expected to be several weeks late this year as a result of the western blizzards in January and February.

Lamb has been relatively scarce ever since stockmen reduced herds during the war when both feed and labor were hard to get and high-priced.

The Agriculture department recently estimated the early spring crop would be some 6 per cent smaller than last year and possibly the smallest on record.

Fed lambs this week reached an all-time peak price on the Chicago livestock market. Choice Colorado fed lambs sold for $29.25 a hundred pounds on Tuesday. Five weeks before, the top lamb price was $22.75.

PRICES WORK UP

Although beef and pork were generally steady this week, trade spokesmen noted that wholesale prices were working upward slightly and said this promised higher meat costs for housewives next week.

Freezing temperatures Tuesday night in the Carolinas were reported to have caused considerable damage to budding or blooming peach orchards. Several growers in the Spartanburg region said their peach crops were "ruined." A Richmond county, North Carolina, grower estimated 75 per cent of all opened buds in his area were totally destroyed.

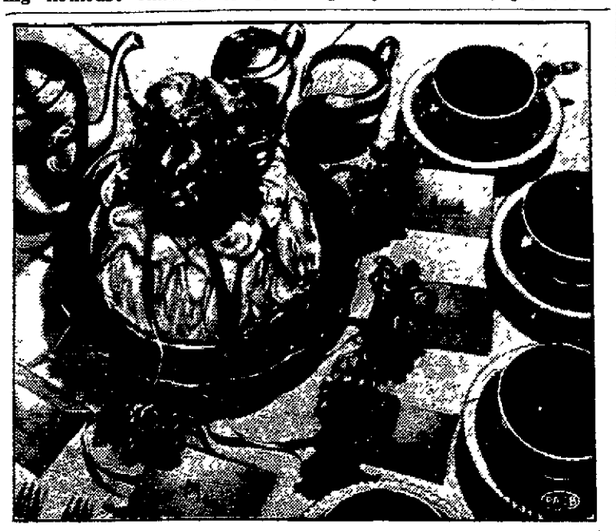
Lettuce prices edged upward a few cents a head as demand picked up.

"That happens every year about this time after a few touches of bright spring weather," an Agriculture department marketing analyst said. "Demand for salad greens takes a spurt almost overnight."

Cabbage was a little higher as shipments lagged in some sections of the country. Green peppers cost almost twice as much as last week in several cities as the Florida crop neared its close and produce buyers awaited west coast shipments delayed by unfavorable growing weather earlier.

Cauliflower, broccoli, string beans, cucumbers and eggplant all were lower this week. Spinach, which has been a slow seller, was moving upward in price by mid-week.

Michigan growers were sending hothouse rhubarb to New York City markets by air as a railway express labor dispute blocked express shipments. Some daily air shipments this week ran as high as 20,000 pounds of rhubarb. Water cress from Ohio was moving to the big city markets by plane also.



PRETTY AND EASY—Candles, flowers and a luscious cake accompanied by steaming cups of fragrant coffee—together they make a birthday celebration that will be a pleasant memory long after the birthday itself has been forgotten. If you are willing to contribute a bit of your time and skill, you can reproduce this happy setting at small cost.

Asks Bomb Plan Probe

WASHINGTON — (UP) — House members yesterday protested recent disclosure of Air Force plans to bomb 70 Russian targets in event of war. One member demanded an investigation.

Chairman George H Mahon of the Military Appropriations subcommittee was applauded when he told the House he had registered an "emphatic protest" with military officials.

"All of this reckless disregard of our national security must stop," Mahon asserted "I hope my colleagues will join me in calling a halt."

Rep. Francis Case, R., S. D., a member of the Mahon subcommittee, demanded an investigation of how the information on Air Force plans were "leaked" to the press

House Majority Leader John McCormack, D., Mass., said the disclosures "call for serious attention."

Fliers Aloft for Endurance Effort

PHOENIX, ARIZ. — (INS) — Two Fullerton, Cal., fliers circled monotonously over Sky Harbor airport near Phoenix yesterday in a little Aeronca plane as they made their fourth assault on the endurance flying record for small planes.

Pilots Bill Barris and Dick Riedel said they would remain aloft for six weeks as they took off from Fullerton airport at 2:44 p. m. (EST) Tuesday.

Feeman Opens New Restaurant

Ben Feeman, a restaurant worker in Mansfield for 15 years, will open Benny's Diner on West Fourth street near Mulberry street Saturday morning. The restaurant will be in the room formerly occupied by Ray's Lunch

Feeman was in the army 27 months and since his discharge has been employed at Carmel's in Galion. His restaurant here will be open from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Fire Employe With Yen to Throw Things

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The State Welfare department yesterday discharged a Cleveland employe on charges that, among other things, she threw vases and a flower pot out of her office window.

A removal order, effective Saturday, was filed with the State Civil Service commission against Caroline Braddock by M. W. McIntyre, chief of the division of aid for the aded.

In the Removal order, McIntyre said Miss Braddock threw a heavy pocketbook at one of her fellow workers. On another occasion, the division chief said, Miss Braddock, when asked to pick up papers and letters she had thrown on the floor, refused, opened a window and threw vases and a flower pot out of a window.

'Iron Curtain' Residents Get OK to Visit 'Culture Meeting'

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The State department yesterday authorized 23 citizens of "iron curtain" countries to attend the cultural and scientific conference for world peace in New York March 25.

However, the department indicated it would refuse entry permits for five Hungarian delegates in retaliation against treatment of American diplomats in Budapest.

Assistant Secretary of State George V. Allen announced that the cases of two Venezuelans seeking to attend the conference are under consideration. The principal point at issue is whether the two are communists.

Soviet and satellite-state delegates whose entry was authorized include seven Russians, two Romanians, five Czechs, four Poles, and five Yugoslavs.

One of the Russians is Dimitri Shostakovitch, renowned composer recently disciplined by Soviet authorities for exhibiting a "bourgeois" trend in his musical work. Shostakovitch publicly repented and is again in good standing with Soviet music commissars.

The State department in announcing its decision to admit the eastern Eurpean group said it had "no illusions as to the manner in which the communists will attempt to use and manipulate" the conference.

Decorations Beat Food, Expert Says

Claims Setting Most Important

NEW YORK (UP)—It's probably true that the way to a man's heart is through his esophagus, but if a woman's souffles burn and her biscuits become baseballs, she needn't despair.

For even if she can't cook the way his mother does, there's still a good chance to stimulate love at first bite. All it takes is a little planning and thoughtfullness.

Or so claims suave, genial Lou Simon, a three-college man who made the Fireside Inn one of New York's popular restaurants on the premise that love goes with lamb chops, romance with roast beef and wooing with wienerschnitzel.

Simon's restaurant is divided into five candle-lit rooms. Each has a fireplace and there are special corners for newlyweds, f'ancees, anniversary-minded couples and the "boss-secretary pair."

"Each requires a different setting, you see, for each is in a different stage of love," Simon said.

He said women must "never, never" forget that "the dinner hour is the hour of intimacy." He also contended that more engagements are made and more tender words spoken at the dinner hour than at any other time of day.

He said that even after marriage "dinner should—and could—retain it aura of romance."

"Good cooking alone doesn't make for a successful dinner," he said. "A hungry man isn't always too particular. If the food is palatble, he'll eat it."

Simon said he considered setting and atmosphere to be as important as good food when it comes to making meals enjoyable. He said tables should always be set with candles, polished silver, and clean linen tablecloths and napkins.

Refund Checks To Set Record

CLEVELAND — (INS) — The Bureau of Internal Revenue passed out the good news today in Cleveland that it will return approximately $67,500,000 in income tax refunds to 1,250,000 northeastern Ohioans.

Thomas M. Carey, collector for the 18th district, embracing 22 northeastern Ohio countries, promised yesterday that all the checks in the record refund will be in the mail by April 10.

Joins Marines

Dean Miles Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Richard, 611 Bowman street, enlisted in the Marine Corps yesterday for one year, the Mansfield Marine Corps recruiting station reported. Richard is on his way to the Marine Corps Recruit depot at Parris Island, S. C., where he will be given basic training and then assigned to further duty.

Mediterranean peoples began covering their plow points with iron or copper in about 1200 B.C.

FLAKO LEADS ALL PIE CRUST MIXES

Proven For 27 Years, And Widely Copied, Flako Is Largest Seller

Many pie crust mixes are on the market today and many claims are made about them, but according to housewives' preferences, as determined by what they actually buy, there is no pie crust mix like Flako.

Flako is America's largest selling pie crust mix. It has been preferred for 27 years by more housewives than any other similar product. No other pie crust mix has stood the test of pleasing so many housewives for so long. Flako is time-proven; value-proven; oven-proven; and flavor-proven. It is the most widely imitated pie crust mix in America—the mix they all try to copy. But there still is no substitute for Flako.

There's Only One Flako

Try a single package of Flako. Your own flakier, tastier pie will at once tell you why Flako is America's largest selling pie crust mix. The best and nothing but the best ingredients go into Flako. The best flour, baking powder, shortening and salt. The same fine quality ingredients you use. And these are precision-mixed so that you are assured delicious results at every baking. You can't miss with ®Flako. Get yours today. Also ask your grocer for ®Flakorn Corn Muffin Mix and ®Cuplets Cup Cake Mix. All made by the same company. All will delight you.

Reveals Facts Few New Yorkers Know About Own Home Town

THE MOST ORB-FILLING view in The Big Town is the Empire State bldg. It is built to accommodate 25,000 tenants. (More than the population of many communities.) . . . Most tourists go right to its top—originally constructed as a mooring mast for passing dirigibles. It is never used as such. It is the coldest spot in town.

Though Times Square (42nd Street and Broadway) is in the heart of the City of Skyscrapers there isn't one skyscraper there . . . The Times edifice and the Paramount bldg. are pygmies compared to those in lower Manhattan—or the nearest tall building uptown—the Chrysler bldg.—several blocks east.

There are enough regular theatergoers in the Metropolitan area to keep a show (that attracted good notices) running for 40 weeks. . . . Approximately 30,000 of them go to see all the shows religiously.

The best photos of Broadway are usually taken on drizzly nights. The glow-by-glow description afforded by the rain's reflections heightens The Big Stem's dazzle.

Those impressive police wagons which race to emergency calls cost more than $21,000 each. They are crowded with gimcracks and doodads to aid citizens in distress. . We have more than 100 well-equipped hospitals, too. And that's not enough.

The most turbulent hospital is The Harlem, where six ambulances are kept busy in New York's jungle. There are so many "cuttings," a reporter was told not to phone them in. It isn't news, any more.

Our town has 120 pawn shops, in case you're broke. There are 35 restaurants in the block between 6th and 7th Avenues on 49th Street. They range from a walk-up India dinery to a massive chophouse operated by Eisenhower's one-time mess Sgt. . . . "Sloppy Looey's" is in the heart of the Fish Market on South St. It is said to be one of the finest seafood spots on seven continents.

We have one restaurant on the lower East Side (been in business 30 years) which serves only one meal a week—Sunday dinner.

That gallery of paintings on Lindy's righthand wall is valued at $25,000. Before he purchases them he always consults his personal art connoisseur, Ernest Rochie, one of his waiters.

There is a ritzy candy store on upper 5th Avenue, which retails its bonbons at only $80 per box. (The cost of the fancy box is the reason. . . . Toy shops on the same avenue have "toys" that cost you more than the real thing from which they were copied into playthings.

Contrary to public opinion, unhappy love affairs account for the fewest number of suicides in Our Burg. The reason you think so is that they make the most dramatic headlines. . The N. Y. Times has the largest city-room — one block long — from 43rd to 44th. It is so big editors summon reporters via mircrophones.

Russian Claims Leave No Doubt As to World's Best Inventors

RUSSIAN SCIENCE marches steadily on. There has been nothing like it since Tom Swift, whose real name, by the way, was Swiftski. Tom was actually born on a Siberian steppe, stolen from his pleasant parents by Gypsies and brought here as a boy and sold by the Gypsies to the General Electric corporation.

Soviet Russia, it turns out, is even more of an inventor's heaven than a worker's paradise Every few weeks Tass, the official government news agency, discovers a forgotten Russian scientist who really is responsible for some basic invention claimed by the capitalistic western world.

The latest is Comrade Pavel Schilling, who Tass says put together a telephone 44 years before Alexander Graham Bell built his first Ameche. Comrade Schilling, who must have hid his light under a Czarist Bushel, is also credited with making the first submarine cable and inventing the original system for stringing telegraph wires on poles.

One thing is sure somebody is stringing somebody.

Other wonders previously claimed for Soviet scientists are the invention of the radio, the electric light, the airplane, the parachute, the transformer, and structural steel. They also are held to have discovered penicillin and the electrical nature of lightning.

This theory makes Johnny-come-lately s of Marconi, Thomas Edison, Benjamin Franklin, and the Wright Brothers. About all the western world now can claim as its own are the ice cream cone, the five-cent cigar, nylon, pyramid clubs, the chocolate sundae, and the two-way stretch girdle.

Some other well-known Soviet inventions have been overlooked by Tass and Pravda. Russia invented the veto in the field of international diplomacy It was also the first modern nation to endorse free speech—in a controlled way.

As time goes on it shouldn't be too difficult to prove that basketball, which some folks think originated in 1891 in Springfield, Mass., actually was first played with goat bladders on the banks of the Volga in the 14th century. There is also some evidence that Frank Merriwell (real name Merriwellovitch) was hired by Yale from a Moscow high school to beat Princeton and his famous "jump ball. Or was it his son, Dick Merriwellovitch, who invented the "jump ball" pitch? History is getting so fuzzy.

A big question is raised by the fact Russia claims to have invented electric lights, telephones and radios but did so little with them for so many years. Is there a communist plot behind this?

If Russia invented the machine age, why did it come to flower in the Western world? Are the Russians inventing these gadgets and exporting them to us in the secret hope we will destroy ourselves with the worries of a mechanized life?

Maybe that is the hidden aim of Soviet scientists

Collect 98% Of County Realty Tax

Payments Top 1947 Figure

Slightly more than 98 per cent of the real estate and special assessments tax charge was collected during the first-half collection period, which ended Feb. 21, County Treasurer Charles C. Payne announced today.

The amount collected for the first-half period totaled $1,160,704, while the charge was $1,184, 140. That makes the amount delinguent $34,652.

Payne said there was an increase of $147,642 more collected for this year's first-half period, compared to last year's. The charge also was greater since the charge last year was $1,041,021.

In 1947, a total of $38, 426 in delinquent taxes was carried over while this year $34,652 was carried over, a reduction of $3,774, Payne said

The Mansfield collection shows that $630,815 was collected compared to a collection of $580,440 for the first-half of last year. This represents an increase of $50,375.

Bellville residents paid in $8,600, an increase of $792.

The last-half 1948 charge amounts to $1,147,856, which together with $34,652 in delinquent taxes, boosts the charge to be collected in the summer to $1,182,509.

Crashes Hurt Two Women

Man Uninjured as Icy Roads Cause Accidents

Two Columbus women suffered minor injuries and a Columbus man escaped unharmed in separate accidents late yesterday and early today on icy roads in the Mansfield area.

State highway patrolmen said both accidents were caused by road conditions.

Injured last night when their car collided with a guard rail and bridge southwest of Lexington were Mrs. Amelia Lisle, 37, passenger, Mrs. Fay Biglow of Columbus.

Officers said Mrs. Lisle suffered a bruised right elbow and a chest injury, while Mrs. Biglow suffered lacerations of the face. Both women were treated by a physician

Mrs. Lisle told officers she stopped to avoid colliding with a truck traveling through a narrow bridge, two miles southwest of Lexington, and slid into the rail and bridge structure. The accident occurred at 10:20 p. m

At 4 45 a. m. today a car driven by Dave Odaffer, 58, of Columbus, skidded on U. S. Route 42 and overturned two and three-tenths miles southwest of Mansfield. Odaffer escaped injury, officers said.

BUSY DAYS—There's always something doing in Mansfield Girl Scout circles these days with 82 active troops in the city and 11 more in the process of organization. Last week was national Girl Scout birthday week and Mansfield Scouts celebrated at a theater party at John Simpson auditorium Saturday. In the top picture Girl Scouts and Brownies join in the final chorus of "It's Magic," in a skit by the same name which they presented at the theater party. Below, newly-formed Brownie Troop 79 receives a flag presented by the ritual and Moose Haven committees of the Moose lodge. Mrs. Stanley Marietta is troop leader.

Hoag Named College Head

Lt. Cmdr. Merritt E. Hoag, training officer of the Mansfield Naval Reserve Unit 9-195, has been appointed to the presidency of the North Georgia college, Dahlonega, Ga. by the school's board of regents, it was announced today.

Cmdr. Hoag is a native of Greenwich where he now teaches high school. He is married and has a two-year-old son.

Commissioned an ensign early in World War II, Cmdr, Hoag spent two and a half years in the southwest Pacific with the amphibious forces. At the invasion of Okinawa he was divisional commander of the LCT's.

Following the war he was dean of the Georgia college and was commandant of the school's cadets. He has been teaching in Greenwich since, last fall and will take over his new position on July 1.

State Dairy Leader To Speak In City

Ora Anderson of the Ohio Dairy Producers association, will speak at a dinner of the Richland county Holstein Breeders association tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church hall.

Anderson is former editor of the Ohio Holstein News. Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from William Baldwin, at the Wileben farm at Lexington, president of the county group, or at the extension office in the courthouse.

'Hoodlum Hunters' Draw Rider's Ire

"The hardest job of the State Conservation is not the management of wildlife, it's the management of wild people," H. A. 'Buck' Rider, state conservation commissioner, declared last night. The blast was aimed at 'hoodlum' hunters who, Rider said. are threatening public hunting in Ohio

The commissioner, speaking at the annual dinner of the Richland county fox hunters. stressed the need for continuance of public hunting in the state of Ohio and in the United States.

"Public hunting," he asserted, "represents all that is free and what we know as democracy in the United States. A man can beg or borrow a gun and ammunition and for the small sum of one dollar can go out and hunt on almost anyone's land. To me that's democracy."

Rider traced the development of conservation work in Ohio and other states, showing how the work progressed from the mere establishing of game refuges to research, controlled hunting, vermin control, and finally what he called the real solution to the problem of conservation—the establishing and maintenance of habitat.

"Our grain production and agriculture in the state of Ohio and game from a food standpoint," he continued "But what is the use of carrying game for the entire year and then losing it during the dangerous period, from the last week of March through the first week of May?"

"This period is when the wildlife needs feeding and shelter—a matter of habitat"

The commissioner expressed appreciation for the work the Fox Hunters association has performed in keeping foxes from overbalancing the scheme of nature

NEEDS COOPERATION

"There would be no conservation without the cooperation of sportsmen's groups," he said.

Rider also touched on the role of the United States in world matters, saying, "We can't afford further loss of our natural resources through another war. The world must turn to the United States with her great natural resources. And these resources must be conserved."

Harold Snyder, president of the association, presided over the meeting during which musical selections were offered by Mrs. Robert Donnan and Miss Norma Hess. They were accompanied by Mrs. Richard Wolford, pianist, as was Lawrence Chamberlain who sang Irish ballads for the 175 persons present.

Snyder, accompanied by Mrs Snyder, performed bird imitations and whistled several numbers

Concluding the dinner was the showing of movies taken during the course of this year's hunts by Harold Garverick and Henry Nikolaus.

Snyder announced that next Saturday's hunt, scheduled to start at the Ontario school at 8:45 a. m, would be the last of the year for the local group. Monday at 7:30 p. m. the association members will meet at the courthouse to elect officers.

CLOSE RACE

It looked like a close race, but it was anyone's guess who won. Early this morning the snow on back yards on Rae avenue was undisturbed except for two sets of animal tracks. The first obviously had been made by a rabbit, the second by a large dog. The dog seemed to be gaining on the rabbit when the tracks disappeared near an alley. Some residents of the neighborhood who have had their early spring flowers chewed off to the ground by the hungry rabbit were hoping the rabbit ran second in the contest.

COMFORTABLE, THANKS—

Mansfielders may complain about the weather, but the goldfish swimming placidly around in the pool in Central park have shown no appreciable discomfort due to the elements so far this winter. The fish stay in the pool all year except when the park department cleans their home in the fall and spring. The water in the pool keeps clear of ice in the winter because the water inlet is kept open to keep the water circulating.

Motorist Held In Jail Here

Chickens Trap Columbus Man

Hugh Daugherty of Columbus, surviving victim of a grade crossing crash near Tiro early Wednesday, was moved to Richland county jail today after a Richland county farmer identified the coop of chickens found in the wrecked car.

He was held pending filing of charges by William Hursh, State Route 61, three miles north of Shelby, who identified the chickens by bands on their wings.

Daugherty was held for investigation by Crawford county authorities yesterday after a coop of 16 chickens, 10 of them killed in the crash, was found in the wreckage.

Driver of the car, James Richardson, 47, also of Columbus, was killed when a Pennsylvania passenger train rammed the car, five miles west of Shelby. Daugherty escaped with a back injury and scalp lacerations.

He was attended by a physician today at county jail when infection showed up in one arm.

Daugherty, who is 31, contends that he fell asleep when the pair left Columbus shortly after 11 p. m. Tuesday and that he didn't awaken until after the accident at 4.30 a. m. Wednesday.

Seek Three Escapers

An Ashland man is among three male patients who escaped from the Columbus State School For the Feeble Minded shortly before dark last night and are still at large today. Six others who escaped with them were captured by police and returned to the institution.

The three being sought by police today include Frederick Perkins, 21, of Ashland; Frederick Morris, 27, of Martins Ferry; and Kenneth Johnson, 18, of Akron.

The nine patients, described as "hard to handle" walked off the institution grounds on the west side of Columbus early last night Four were captured an hour later in a chase marked by police gunfire. Two others were taken into custody later by railroad detectives and police of suburban Bexley.

A seventh patient who escaped Feb. 26 also was captured shortly after the escape of the nine men. He is Charles E. Smith, 26, of Vermillion, who was believed to have engineered the break

Smashes Car, Faces Liquor Sales Charge

Trouble doubled up on Catalina bartender Robert Reams, 26, of 27 Florence avenue, today.

At 5 a. m. Reams' car skidded into a tree in the front yard of the armory opposite East Fourth street. Police said Reams suffered a lip laceration but that his car was a total loss.

At 9:30 a. m. he was supposed to appear in Municipal court to answer a state liquor department charge that he had furnished liquor to minors. Meanwhile, police cited him for unsafe operation in connection with the early morning accident

But Reams contended that he was unable to appear in court because of injuries from the accident Hearing on the liquor charge was continued until April 14 and the unsafe operation charge until March 24.

Kaufman to Close Civic Music Season With Concert Tonight

Last concert of the Civic association's 1948-49 winter series will be heard tonight at John Simpson auditorium when Louis Kaufman, famed violinist of concert and screen, appears here. Concert time is 8 15 p m.

Kaufman, who has been called a "violinist's violinist and a musician's musician," will mix classics with the works of contemporary composers and modern American works.

Born in Portland, Ore., Kaufman became interested in the violin at the age of five. At 10 years he toured the country as a child prodigy.

In 1928 he won the coveted Naumberg award and toured both Europe and America as soloist.

In recent years, Kaufman's music has been heard by millions who attend motion picture theaters. Some of his recent recordings have been for the scores of "Gone With the Wind," "Since You Went Away," "Roughly Speaking," "Of Human Bondage," "Wuthering Heights," "Suspicion," "Going My Way," "The Two Mrs. Carrolls," "Stallion Road," and "The Voice of the Turtle."

Belgian King May Quit To Elevate Son

Leopold Urged To Leave Throne

LONDON (U.P.)—Europe will soon have a new king is the prediction of behind-the-scenes observers of continental political trends. They believe that since the Belgian Prince Baudouin, has reached his royal majority of 18 he will soon succeed his exiled father.

The Belgian royal family have been in exile in Switzerland since the war. King Leopold, who still holds onto a crown he cannot wear, is the subject of a virulent controversy in the land he cannot rule. A large section of the populace accuse him of being a traitor.

His enemies never have forgiven him for surrendering to the German invading army in 1940. They point to the courage of the Dutch monarch, Queen Wilhelmina, who went into exile.

The Germans took Leopold to Germany where he was liberated by the Allies. He then went to Switzerland, living in seclusion at Pregny, on the shores of Lake Geneva.

Leopold has aroused passionate controversies in his native land. Many Belgians, women in particular, never forgave him for his secret marriage to the commoner, Miss Liliane Baels, whom he married after the death of his first wife, the lovely Swedish Princess Astrid. Queen Astrid was killed when she was thrown from a car in which she and Leopold were driving in Switzerland.

Leopold always has believed that the Belgian nation would one day recall him from exile but now hope is waning. Even staunch pro-Leopoldists believe that there is little hope of the exile's dream being realized.

But Leopold claims that if he renounces the throne, he automatically admits the accusation of treachery to his country.

Since shortly after the liberation of Belgium, Prince Charles—Leopold's brother—has reigned in the royal palace in Brussels as regent. He has been a popular regent. But even close supporters of Leopold believe that it is an unwise policy

N. Y. Taxpayers Get 50% Boost

ALBANY, N. Y. — (UP) — New York taxpayers got the bad news today—a 50 per cent increase in their 1948 income tax due on April 15 to meet the pay-as-you-go policy of Thomas E. Dewey, last year's Republican presidential nominee.

But the increased tax levy is 10 per cent below the full amount asked by Dewey to pay for the $936,000,000 worth of state expenditures listed in his all-time high budget request.

Babson Has War Retreat

NEW BOSTON, N. H. (U.P.) — Scientist-statistician Roger W. Babson has chosen this quiet village as his bomb proof retreat.

Convinced that World War III with at least one atom bomb labeled "Boston" is just over the horizon, the gray-haired pessimist penciled on a map a 60-mile area from downtown Boston and began to scout the area.

New Boston fitted his requirements—it is 60 miles from Boston and it is small but within 15 miles of a good-sized unlikely target city Manchester, N. H.).

Babson, widely known business consultant who predicted the 1929 crash, bought a farm and several buildings for his new laboratory which will explore the mysteries of gravity.

The farm was chosen with equal care. Babson specified it should have enough bottom land to feed his employes, enough buildings to house them, be within walking distance of schools, stores and a post-office, and have an independent water supply.

Tractors, cultivators and other modern farm equipment were purchased and stored for use when the emergency demands it. In the meantime the 200 acres will be kept in grassland.

Babson will set up a research laboratory to study effects of gravity upon man's brain and general feeling. He wants to find out how much gravity has to do with man's judgment and attitude from day to day, and from hour to hour during each day.

Lost Articles Turn-Up Again In Million Dollar Rag Bag

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—The Million Dollar Rag Bag is a waste paper warehouse on Front street under the Brooklyn bridge.

It is called that because more than $5,000,000 worth of valuables, accidentally thrown out in waste paper baskets in Rockefeller Center, have been recovered there.

The valuables range from a specially constructed set of "speaking" teeth of a famous news commentator to a radio script of Fred Allen.

Dominick Serrantino, owner of the warehouse, collects all the waste paper in the 11 buildings of Rockefeller Center. The paper is bundled into burlap sacks, tagged and stacked in the warehouses.

BANK DRAFTS FOUND

One day last week an export-import firm lost $50,000 worth of drafts on a bank in India. The office manager called the superintendent of the center. He called Serrantino's warehouse. One hour and fifteen minutes later the bank drafts were back in the exporting office.

Fred Allen and his company of radio actors finished rehearsing a radio show the night before the broadcast. Next evening, close to broadcast time, the script, the only one which included the last minute changes made by the comedian the night before, could not be found.

Questioning showed that a cleaning woman had thrown the script into the waste paper basket. A motorcycle rider was sent to Front street and returned with the script in time for the show.

IT'S A SYSTEM

In the warehouse, Serrantino uses a system of holding bags of waste paper 48 hours before he bundles it into bales for sale. During that delay, the bags are stocked according to the building they come from. Each bag bears a colored tag. The color indicates the building and on the tag is written the date and the floor.

When a request to search for something comes, the bag can be located quickly. The contents are dumped on the floor and a representative from the office which has lost something is turned loose.

Serrantino and his helpers have gotten used to the sight of two or three executives, on hands and knees, pawing their way through piles of crumpled paper.

Survey Hits Living Cost

LINCOLN, Neb. (U.P.) — The idea that the cost of living varies sharply from city to city doesn't carry much weight with the business research bureau at the University of Nebraska.

Living expenses are 12 per cent lower in New Orleans than in Washington, but those are the two extremes, the bureau reported. In 34 cities studied, the "average difference" amounted to less than three per cent. Dr. Edgar Z. Palmer, bureau chief, said. Food costs varied about 1½ per cent.

"It seems to make little difference what city we live in," he said. "Living costs too much in any, and there is not much choice."

Population appears to have no effect on living expenses, Palmer said. Seattle, New York, Milwaukee, San Francisco, Boston and Detroit were classed at the top of the expense sheet, and Indianapolis, Buffalo and Houston among the lower cost cities.

Painless But Effective

Use Electricity to Probe Delinquency

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The State Bureau of Juvenile Research disclosed yesterday that it is seeking to find out what makes a child bad by means of an electrical gadget.

The machine, an electroencephalograph, locates brain damage through the brain's electrical impluses and then puts the findings on paper.

Dr. Maurice Newburger, executive psychologist at the bureau, said all of the children admitted to the bureau for study because of delinquency or other reasons will be examined. So far, he said, the machine has been used only to diagnose brain damage from epilepsy, tumors, or injuries.

"By testing a large number of children, experts may find that many of them misbehave because of their physical make-up," Dr. Newburger said.

The examination, he added, is painless and simple.

The child lies on a cot in a small room completely insulated to keep out all outside electrical currents. Sixteen flat, small discs — called electrodes — are glued to various parts of the scalp.

Fine wires lead from the discs to the radio-like machine which amplifies waves of electricity from the brain 1,000,000 times. The brain currents move a series of pens which touch a moving band of paper, recording the brain currents as a series of waves.

Each person has his own brain wave pattern just as he has his own handwriting, Dr. Newburger said. The pattern does not reflect thoughts or intelligence.

But when the brain has been damaged, the chemical and physical properties disturbed, the patterns are abnormal, the psychologist explained These abnormal patterns help the doctor discover the damage.

Dr. Newburger said many unsuspected cases of latent epileptic cases could be discovered through use of the electroencephalograph and the children given treatment.

Urging Housing Aid

LIMA — (INS) — The Federal Public Housing authority was asked yesterday to continue the wartime housing project in Lima because private enterprise has failed to meet demand.

SEEKS OFFICE—Agreeing to run for the congressional seat vacated by the death of Rep. Sol Bloom (D), N. Y., Franklin D. Roosevelt jr., (above), becomes the first son of the late president to seek public office.

Name Anti-Sub Destroyer for Ohio Medal of Honor Winner

BOSTON — (INS) — A new type anti-submarine destroyer named for a World War II Medal of Honor hero will be commissioned Saturday at the South Boston annex, U. S. Naval shipyard.

The U. S. S. Epperson, honoring the late Private First Class Harold Glenn Epperson, U. S. Marine Corps reserve, will be commissioned by Rear Admiral Morton L. Deyo, U. S. N., commandant of the First Naval district.

The ship, built by the Bath Iron Works corporation, Bath, Me., is the first of its type to be commissioned. It is equipped with the latest devices in anti-submarine warfare.

PFC Epperson, a native of Akron, Ohio, gave his life to protect his comrades during the invasion of Saipan in June, 1944.

His mother, Mrs. Jouett B. Epperson, of Winchester, Kentucky, the ship's sponsor, has invited the Rev. George R. Wolverton, of Marion, an uncle of the marine, to represent the family at the commissioning ceremony.

Among those expected to attend are Rear Admiral Felix Johnson, U. S. N, commander of the destroyer force, U. S. Atlantic fleet, and city, state and national dignitaries.

SEARCH EFFORTS HALTED

MANILA — (AP) — Efforts to reach a crashed B-29 tanker plane atop 4,600 foot Mt. Irid by helicopter were abandoned yesterday.

SAVE-A-DAY ROLLS

Make these delicious All-Bran rolls in a spare moment... bake them when you need them.

1 cup shortening
¾ cup sugar
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran
1½ teaspoons salt
1 cup boiling water
2 eggs, well-beaten
2 cakes compressed yeast
1 cup lukewarm water
6½ cups sifted flour, or more

1. Measure shortening, sugar, All-Bran, salt, into large bowl; add boiling water, stir until shortening melts. Cool to lukewarm. 2. Stir in eggs and yeast softened in lukewarm water. 3. Add ½ the flour; beat 'til smooth. Add remainder, beat well. 4. Cover bowl closely. Refrigerate overnight or until ready to use. 5. Shape balls of dough to fill greased muffin pans about half full. Let rise in warm place about 2 hours or until double in bulk. 6. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) about 15 minutes. Yield: 3½ dozen delicious rolls.

Russia Sets Arms Budget

MOSCOW — (INS) — The supreme presidium of the Soviet union has approved a budget that includes 79 billion rubles for military expenditures in the coming year.

(According to the Russian currency exchange yardstick, the Russian ruble stands at approximately five to the American dollar, putting the military budget at $15,000,000,000. This is a pegged rate, however and does not denote the actual ruble value in purchasing power.)

Total state income is estimated at 446,043,000,000 rubles and expenses at 415,355,000,000 rubles, leaving a surplus of 30,688,000,000 rubles.

Amazing Offer! If your dog's never tried it...
LET US PAY FOR YOUR FIRST FULL-SIZE BOX OF GRO-PUP

HERE'S ALL YOU DO...
1. Buy a package of Kellogg's Gro-Pup Ribbon Dog Food today. For 2 or 3 days combine Gro-Pup with your dog's previous food. (Veterinarians advise this in a change of diet.)
2. After your dog is eating Gro-Pup regularly, write us how your dog likes it—giving the price you paid, and name of store. Enclose the Gro-Pup box top. Write to—
Kellogg's, Box 309
Battle Creek, Mich.
3. In return, we will send you full purchase price and postage. Let us pay for your dog's first chance to eat the healthful Gro-Pup way!
OFFER CLOSES MAY 31, 1949
ONE OFFER PER FAMILY

WHY WE MAKE THIS OFFER
There are plenty of dog foods making claims—claims—CLAIMS. But that doesn't mean a thing unless your dog noses into his dish and eats heartily. That's why we're willing to make this unusual Gro-Pup offer—and back it with real money!
We're so sure your dog will go for Gro-Pup that it's good business for us to pay for that first full-size package. It's the biggest box on the shelf!
You can't lose! And your dog wins! For Gro-Pup contains meat meal, skim milk . . . every vitamin and mineral dogs are known to need! Comes in crisp toasted RIBBONS . . . the only dog food made in this chewy, tempting form!
Thrifty, too. Not 70% water like most canned dog foods. Gro-Pup is crispy, solid food—you add the water. Try Gro-Pup at our expense. Watch your dog go for it!

WOW! SOME OFFER! TAKE IT! GRO-PUP IS SMACKIN' GOOD!

Heath Signs, All Braves In

BRADENTON, FLA. — (AP) — Boston braves holdout, is due in camp today. He agreed to terms by telephone from his Bow, Wash., home yesterday and said he'd take the first available plane. As usual, terms were not disclosed, but it is reported Heath received around $20,000 last season.

Heath will strengthen the outfield group, on which manager Billy Southworth is keeping a watchful eye. Southworth told Pistol Pete Reiser to stick to batting left handed yesterday after the switch-hitting ex-Brooklyn Dodger said he didn't feel natural swinging right handed.

Both In Finals

NEW YORK — (UP) — Top-seeded Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles and defending champion Billy Talbert of New York, who has been dropped back to second seeding, will both be in action today when the national indoor tennis championship opens at Seventh Regiment Armory.

Falcon Five Touted As 'Hot' Crew

A quietly confident Mansfield Senior high school basketball team was scheduled to wind up practice today for its regional tournament participation.

The Tygers are scheduled to meet Bowling Green in the first round of the Toledo tourney tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. If victorious, Senior high will meet the Columbus Central - Toledo Central Catholic winner at 8:15 Saturday. All regional games will be played in the Toledo U. fieldhouse.

With the sectional and district champions already in their pocket, the Tygers figure they can get by Bowling Green tomorrow. However, they expect a battle as the Falcons have suddenly developed into a "hot" club.

Bowling Green barely survived the sectional tourney but defeated Port Clinton, 63 to 48, and favored Toledo Libbey, 58 to 43, to win the district crown in handy fashion. Bowling Green doesn't have much height but makes up for it in speed and aggressiveness.

The Falcons licked Libbey by outbattling the bigger Toledo team under the bankboards. Bowling Green's only player over six feet is Dave Witte, 6-4, junior center. Mansfield will have a definite advantage in that department as four of the Tyger starters are over six feet.

NEW FOUL RECORD

Bowling Green almost set a new Toledo fieldhouse record by pouring 26 points through the hoop in the third quarter against Port Clinton. But the Falcons did set a record by committing 34 fouls against Libbey, half of them coming in the fourth quarter.

Shooting drills were the order of the day in Coach Vern Hoffman's Tyger schedule for today. The Tygers worked out on the Toledo floor Tuesday and Wednesday with gratifying results.

The balding Senior high mentor liked the way his boys performed on the big floor. Toledo's hardcourt is easily the largest the Bengals have used all year.

"The big floor won't hurt our style of play a bit," Hoffman remarked. "In fact, it will give us a chance to maneuver. You know, big floors are always better for fast breaks. All we have to do is worry about getting the rebounds."

Hoffman also has a tip for Tyger fans. "Detours make it tough to plan an easy trip to Toledo," he says. "However, we reached the fieldhouse without much trouble by this route. We went to Shelby and then took Route 61 to Route 20 and turned left, remained on 20 to Route 120 and turned right going through Elmore and over the Toledo Cherry street bridge to the second street where we turned left for eight blocks to Monroe, We turned right on Monroe to Bancroft where we turned left and continued to the university."

ANDERSON NEEDS 11

Jimmy Anderson continues to pile up points for the Bengals. He has 343 in the 25 games and needs got 11 more to take second place in the all-time Tyger scoring columns. Nick Gagich is the top Tyger scorer with 429 points while Bobby Baker is second with 353.

Gagich broke the record just last year. Jimmy has counted 132 field goals and 79 free throws for his total. The slender junior has averaged 13.7 per game.

Ed Demyan tops the foul shooters with 51 of 88.

BASKETBALL?—The Cleveland Browns basketball team got a bit desperate and resorted to football tactics in the fourth quarter when it fell behind the Mansfield all-stars in the Friendly House benefit game last night at Senior high school. Halfback Edgar Jones actually tackled Fred Lewis, the ball-carrier, in the last minute. Otto Graham of the Browns is at the left while Ollie Cline, Mansfield, falls into the play from the right. Mansfield won the contest, 43 to 39.—(News-Journal staff photo)

Mansfield All-Stars Defeat Cleveland Browns In Friendly House Gym Benefit

By CHARLEY STINE

The Cleveland Browns are still a good football team.

But eight of the gridiron's top athletes showed up in the livery of the basketball Browns last night and took a 43-39 trimming from a determined Mansfield all-star team, on the Senior high court.

The game was the Friendly House benefit affair sponsored by the Goodfellows organization. An estimated 900 fans donated to the F-H equipment coffers by attending and got more than their money's worth as they saw the All-Stars come from behind to upset the fancy ball-handling visitors.

The Browns, all former college stars, led the locals most of the way but began to fool around a little too much in the fourth quarter. Before they could lock the barn the horse was gone.

Riding the crest of a nine-game winning streak, the visitors led 35-26 going into the final period but scored only four points during that quarter while the Stars piled up 17.

Fred Lewis tied the game at 37-37 with a long shot for the Stars with two minutes to go. Ed. Chatlain rammed home a field goal and Bob Nikolaus a pair of fouls to put the locals in front 41-37.

Otto Graham, a former All-American basketball Northwestern connected with a hook shot from deep in the corner to bring the Browns within two points with 20 seconds to go.

They tied the All-Stars up for two jump balls, but on the second one of the Browns stepped into the jump circle too soon and Mansfield took the ball out of bounds. A fast break netted the clinching bucket with Ollie Cline doing the scoring from close in.

Mac Speedie, the former Utah gridder and now Browns first string offensive end, was the scoring star of the night with 14 points.

All proceeds of the game went to the Friendly House equipment fund but the exact amount will not be available for several days. Funds from several groups buying blocks of reserved seats are still outstanding.

The Bulldogs, next year's John Simpson junior high varsity, won the Friendly House junior tournament championship by defeating Grace Gospel, 34-25, in the preliminary.

The Bulldogs led by only 26-25 with three minutes to go, but W. B. Jones went on a scoring spree to rack up eight straight points from there on in.

Trophies were presented to both teams by Lou Groza, the Browns extra point automat.

Mike Wentz's battle royal kids put on another of their patented "show stoppers" at the half of the feature game.

All game officials, scorers, timers, ushers and players donated their services last night. Bob Walsh erected the sound equipment. Only expense was bringing the Browns to Mansfield.

Delphos St. John's Hogs Regional Cage Spotlight

By JIM DAILEY

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Ohio's four Class B regional tournaments come on like gang-busters tonight as six semi-final games take the floor at Kent, Athens, Springfield and Toledo.

Only one Class A semi-final is scheduled—that between Dayton Dunbar and Lancaster's Golden Gales at Cincinnati.

But the Class B boys hog the spotlight tonight and let nobody say they don't deserve it or rate with the larger class A teams. Delphos St. Johns, one of the favorites among the B's to make that trip to Columbus, has a victory over a top Class A contender, Toledo Central Catholic, to its credit.

Delphos (25-3) clashes with Ottawa Hills (20-2) tonight in the first game at Toledo, and Walbridge (18-5) meets Salem township, the only undefeated Class B contender, in the second game.

Delphos' victory over Toledo Central would pose a neat situation should they both go on to win the titles in their respective classes. The Class A team then certainly couldn't be called the best squad, which is always the general impression among people from the larger towns in the state.

BREAK EVEN

Delphos and Central have broken even in two games during the season, the Class B team winning the first and the Central club taking the second. The scores were 54-40 in the first meeting and 58-41 in favor of Central the second time. Thus the two teams could at least be called even.

Delphos is touted to reach Columbus. The Blue Jays have four regulars six feet or over and the tallest is Dick Honingford at 6-7. The marvel of the team, however — he scored 400 points in 22 games—is Dave Schmelzer, 6-2½, who reportedly can't see 10 feet in front of him and still plays without glasses.

Hot Stovers To Open Plans For Jr. Ball

Plans for Mansfield's giant summer baseball program will get their first airing at the Hot Stove league meeting tonight at 7:30 at the city building.

The Hot Stovers operated three junior baseball leagues in Mansfield last summer and plan to go with the same number this year. However, the sports boosting organization hopes to field more than the 25 uniformed teams which competed last year.

Junior baseballers this year will have an accelerated intercity program as well as local league play. Arrangements are already under way to have Mansfield teams meet outfits from Wooster and Alliance.

Funds for the junior baseball program will be raised through a membership drive which is scheduled to begin next month. Supervision and umpires will be be furnished by the Mansfield department of recreation. The over-all program cost the Hot Stovers and recreation department approximately $2,000 last season.

Besides Mansfield merchants and organizations furnished uniforms for the clubs.

Joe Louis KO's 'Violent' Ray

HOUSTON, Tex. — (AP) — Joe Louis scored a technical knockout over Elmer (Violent) Ray in the fourth round of a bout last night.

The heavyweight champion, who recently announced his retirement, dropped Ray just as as the third round ended. The Florida fighter failed to come out for the fourth round.

Bob Hilborn Tops League Pin Parade

Only three bowlers upheld the powerful scoring reputation of the City A league with honor roll scores last night. Normally a half-dozen or more keglers crash the circle from the city's top pin circuit.

Bob Hilborn, son of Colony manager, Art Hilborn, took honors away from his highly-regarded pappy last night as he led the loop with a 187-225-220—632 for the Max Diner team. Phil Warga, Bissman's tallied 619, and John Waldman hit 610 for Waldman's Meats.

In team standings, Bissman's moved to four full games ahead with a two-of-three victory over Mitsch's Corner store, while second place Jerry's 36 Bar was dropping two to Max Diner. Three game sweeps were accomplished by the Eagles over Mid-Ohio and Dr. Pepper over Ideal Billiards.

TAKE HONORS

The Eagles took team honors with a 2865 total and 1001 single game. Richard McKinney led them with 585, Bob Bieri posted 584, Hank Heiser, 582, Jack Hanrahan, 571 and John Perrine, 543. In the 1001 game, Heiser had 233, McKinney 203 and Bieri 201.

Other scores around the league included Don Hipp, Max Diner, 591, and Art Hilborn, Bissman's, 574. Hipp had the top single game, 245.

Tony's Canfield broke out in front in the Victory league as it swept three games from OSR while Ideal Panel took two of three from Home Interiors. Tony's and Ideal had been tied for the lead.

Ray Boor led Tony's to the top with 188-154-209—551. Earl Turner was not far behind with 535 and Frank Roof had 515. Other scores in the loop included a 531 by "Robbie" Robinson of Ideal Electric, 524 by Elmer Myers of Home Interiors and 515 by Don Bachman of Dominion Electric.

Bob Renie, Renie Metal Products capped weak games of 144 and 105 with a 229 top single game in the circuit.

Top score in the Westinghouse "A" league was turned in by J. Maurer. He had 227-159-190—576 and L. Mertz trailed with 190-205-176—571.

Others: F. Kudika, 569; T. Santora, 565; S. Miller, 545; Richard Snavely, 543 and Dana Moxley, 538. Moxley had a 239 and Snavely a 223.

★

J. Slaybaugh led the Westinghouse "E" league with 141-225-186—552. Others: K. Berry, 547; C. Bachelder, 515 and Wiley, 486.

★

Bob Tipul had the only top flight score in the St. Peter's alumni loop as he had a 158-163-240—561. Others: Gerry Dillon, 493; Bob Oaks, 490 and Tom Tipul, 469.

★

A 502 by Sis De Weese topped the Dominion Electric Women's league. Evelyn Phillips scattered the pins for 463. Audrey Campbell counted 434 and Mary Melton had 403. Radene Lee and Marie Shry had 396.

★

Lewis Barnes led Westing-series counted on games of 180-154-179. Lawrence Keeler was runner-up with 511, Jacob Henke had 496; Ralph Marker, 495; D. Wentz, 493; and Jim Kurek, 483.

ABC Standings Static

ATLANTIC CITY — (AP) — There was no change in the American Bowling Congress standings yesterday.

Eight League Schools Spot 'Star' Players

BUCYRUS — All eight teams were represented on the squad of the all-Northern Ohio league basketball squad announced at a meeting of coaches here last night.

Rating first team nomination was Milt Bruckner, Bellevue, and Ray Seif, Galion, at forwards; McKinley, Norwalk, center; and Stan Cronnenwett, Shelby, and Walter Light, Bucyrus, guards.

On the second team are: Jim Lepley, Bellevue, and Dick Utz, Shelby, at forwards, Willard's big Jim Nowakowski at center, and Johnny Johnson of Crestline, converted from center, and Moses, Upper Sandusky, guards.

Honorable mention went to Borgia, Norwalk; Mason, Upper Sandusky; Thornton, Willard; Fox, Bellevue; Widman, Bucyrus; Bill Kibler, Burycus; Morton, Crestline; Whisler, Galion.

Bowling Invasion Listed Saturday In Annual Match

Mansfield will be invaded Saturday but the invaders will be peaceful. Tom Kithcart, president of the Westinghouse bowling league, has announced.

The 'invaders' will be 75 bowlers from the Toledo Du Pont firm seeking their second straight win over 75 keglers from the Westinghouse plant. The teams vie annually for a large trophy on a home and home basis.

Last year the Toledo teams downed the Westinghouse bowlers on Toledo alleys, retaining the cup for the first matches bowled since the war. Several matches were held before war suspended the annual affair.

A banquet will be held at the Elks club at noon Saturday for the visitors, Kithcart added.

The 15 teams from each town will take to the alleys at 2 p. m. Saturday at both the Colony and Richland clubs. All alleys have been taken at the Colony while the 'surplus' bowlers will utilize six others at the Richland.

Cinderella Teams Meet In NIT Goes

NEW YORK—(AP)—Four Cinderella teams battle tonight in the semi-finals of the national invitation basketball tournament.

Loyola of Chicago, conqueror of mighty Kentucky, meets Bradley, upset winner over Western Kentucky, at 8 o'clock (EST) in Madison Square Garden. San Francisco, which nipped third-seeded Utah in the final seconds, engages Bowling Green, surprise victor over St. Louis, at 9:45.

DISRUPTS SCRIPT

These four teams—of the 12 that started the tournament—weren't even supposed to still be in town. The script called for them to bow out gracefully during Monday's games. Instead, they tossed the script out the window in the greatest series of upsets in basketball history.

Ever since Monday night the guys who like to wager a dollar or two on the college boys have been scurrying around trying to find "the line." This morning "Bowling Green was favored by five points and Loyola by three.

None of the four teams has ever won the invitation.

The original seedings, which were wiped away Monday, listed Bradley fifth, followed in order by San Francisco, Bowling Green and Loyola.

Bowling Green, which owns the poorest season's record of the bunch, is riding the crest of a 15-game winning streak that dates back to Jan. 11 when it lost to Kentucky by two points. Altogether the Falcons have won 23 and lost six, including their two tournament victories. Bradley has the best mark—27 and six. Loyola won 24 while losing five and San Francisco won 23 and lost five.

The finals will be played Saturday night with tonight's losers meeting in a third-place game.

Buck Fans Get First Grid Prevue

COLUMBUS —(AP)— That hardy perennial — the Ohio State football fan — was off to an early start today in assessing Buckeye prospects.

Ignoring the calendar, basketball tournaments and the coming baseball season, he took time out last night to listen to some "dope" on the 1949 football squad.

The occasion was a dinner sponsored by the university as an official welcome to Harry Strobel and Gene Fekete to the Ohio State grid coaching staff.

After the dinner, Head Coach Wesley Fesler outlined the spring practice schedule, beginning March 28, and spoke frankly of the Buick prospects for '49.

His report covered everyone from Backfielder Vic Janowicz of Elyria, O., the prize freshman, to another fellow who plays well enough but "can't run a hundred yards in half an hour."

Of spring practice, Fesler said: "We are going to spend one week indoors on blackboard work and movies and then we are going to spend six weeks outdoors, in which time we hope to impress upon our boys that football is a rough, tough game."

He said the Bucks would retain the same offensive system as last year, T formation shifting to the single wing.

Fesler devoted much of his talk to the propects up from the frosh squad, several of whom, he indicated, are better football players than students.

He said Janowicz will be "a great one unless I miss my guess."

Among other freshmen who stand better-than-average chances of earning varsity berths in a year or so, if not next fall, are Bob Hyde, Fremont center; Julius Whitman, Massillon tackle; Carroll Smith, Sebring guard; Ralph Armstrong, Cleveland end; Richard Doyle, Rochester, Pa., halfback, and Walt Klevey, Independence halfback.

Park Blubaugh, Lima gridder who underwent an operation for a knee ailment late in December, will be on hand for spring practice and will be a halfback candidate, Fesler added.

Rookie Rozek Gets Tribe Hill Call

Cleveland Takes 3rd Win From New Yorkers, 4 to 2

TUCSON, Ariz.—(INS)—Rookie Dick Rozek was to display his pitching wares for the Cleveland Indians today in their second contest with the Chicago White Sox.

Rozek, who won 10 games and lost 18 with a hopelessly inept Wilkes-Barre team last season, is a much better performer than his record indicates.

In the 1948 season, Rozek limited his opponents to an average of six hits per game. His strikeout total of 177 was second best in the league. He did, however, have some trouble finding the plate.

The Iowa rookie will be followed to the mound by George Anderman and Will Hafey, son of the great Chick Hafey of National league fame. Chicago's pitchers will be Randy Gumpert, Max Surkont and Fred Bradley.

The Tribesmen racked up victory No. 3 yesterday at Tucson, Ariz., by dropping the Chisox, 4-2. They previously defeated the New York Giants twice.

Lyman Linde and Mike Garcia gave an impressive demonstration of the art of pitching by limiting the Pale Hose to six hits.

Linde, a 26-year-old right-hander, gained the victory. He gave up one run on three bingles in five innings. Garcia allowed the same number of hits and runs in four innings.

WILSON 'PERFECT'

Linde and Garcia, however, had to share honors with one of their teammates, Artie Wilson, who had a perfect day at bat and in the field.

Wilson, Negro shortstop, collected three singles and a base on balls and handled five ground balls without an error. He also looked good on two double plays around the keystone sack.

Another Wilson—Bobby — was the only other Redskin to bang out more than one hit. This Wilson, a second baseman, connected for a single and a double and handled seven ground balls without a miscue.

The Indians, whose lineup was composed mostly of rookies, banged out 10 hits off three Chicago hurlers, eight of them off Al Gettel, former Tribesman.

Meanwhile, the Tribe front office announced that Hank Ruszkowski, catcher, has ended his holdout and will report to training camp as soon as possible. He agreed to terms in a telephone conversation with Bill Veeck yesterday.

It was announced at Tucson yesterday that three of the Indians' "old faithful" infielders—Manager Lou Boudreau, Ken Keltner, and Joe Gordon—will start when the Redskins meet the Chicago Cubs tomorrow. Mickey Vernon also will play first if he receives permission from his doctor.

Report On Joe . . .

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. —(AP)—The New York Yankees promised a statement today regarding the condition of Joe DiMaggio. The Yankee clipper has been bothered by his heel which was operated on during the winter. His physician, Dr. George Bennett of Baltimore, arrived here yesterday for a vacation.

Make Make Reds . . .

BRADENTON, Fla. —(AP)—Jimmy Bloodworth, a 31-year-old Floridian who's up for his fourth go at major league baseball, may be in the Cincinnati Reds' starting infield, come opening day April 19.

Manager Bucky Walters indicated today he's just about convinced he must find a spot at second or third for Bloodworth who suffered a dislocated finger in the Reds-Philadelphia Phillies game yesterday.

The Reds have their second encounter of the Grapefruit league season with the Boston Braves today. They walloped the Tribe 11-1 at Tampa, Tuesday. Ken Raffensberger and rookie Jim Avrea will handle the Redleg pitching chores.

Lead With Ace . . .

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. —(AP)—The Detroit Tigers led with their ace today as Manager Red Rolfe named Hal Newhouser, top American league winner of 1948, to hurl an exhibition game against the New York Yankees.

It was the first Grapefruit league clash for Detroit with a rival from the American league. Yesterday's 7-2 victory over the Boston Braves left the Tigers with an even break in four games with National league clubs.

Rigney Expected . . .

PHOENIX, Ariz. —(AP)— Billy Rigney, New York Giant infielder who collapsed during a game Sunday, was expected back in uniform today. Rigney was treated at a Phoenix hospital for a heart condition. Johnny Mize who has been nursing a bruised knee, also figures to be ready for action within a day or so.

Declare Dividends . . .

CLEARWATER, Fla. —(UP)—The Philadelphia Phillies were declaring early dividends today on their winter deals with the Chicago Cubs.

The Phils, who have been getting excellent performances from former Chicagoans Ed Waitkus and Hank Borowy, leaned again on ex-Cubs yesterday to beat Cincinnati, 2 to 1. Pitcher Russ Meyer hurled six scoreless innings and Bill Nicholson broke a 1-1 stalemate with a prodigious sixth-inning home run.

★

Lose To Athletics . . .

VERO BEACH, Fla. —(UP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers returned to routine workouts today following their 4 to 3 loss to the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday, a loss which snapped a three-game winning streak.

The A's were forced to go 11 innings to beat Brooklyn, Sam Chapman's triple with Hank Majeski on base being the deciding blow. Rookie Frank Laga was the victim of the winning base hit.

Joe Coleman, Lou Brissie, Charlie Harris and Alex Kellner all pitched for Philadelphia.

Can't Go Far . . .

OAKLAND, Calif. —(U.P.)—Manager Bill Meyer of the Pittsburgh Pirates worked his pitching staff on a "go as far as you can" basis today as the Bucs sought to square their two-game series with the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast league. Meyer installed the new system yesterday with only one mishap. Kirby Higbe should have quit after holding Oakland to one run and three hits in four innings. In the fifth they blasted him for four runs and went on to win a 5-to-4 decision. George Metkovich hit a three-run homer for the Oaks and Les Fleming bumped a round-tripper for the Bucs.

No Convincing . . .

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. —(U.P.)—You can't convince the fans of St. Petersburg that Ted Williams is a greater hitter than Stan Musial.

It didn't look that way yesterday, at any rate, when the St. Louis Cards beat the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 4. It was Musial's long triple in the ninth that tied the score at 4-4 and then he, himself, scored the winning run on Ed Sauer's fly ball.

Williams fanned ignominiously in the third with two men on base and Harry Brecheen on the mound for the Redbirds.

The Red Sox meet the Phillies here today.

Defensive Back Quits John Carroll Outfit

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Jack Minor, ace defensive back of the 1948 John Carroll football team, said he will leave school in May to devote full time to supporting his family.

The 22-year-old former Independence high star said he will become a father then and "I owe it to my family to quit." He is a sophomore.

Connie Mack Optimistic On St. Pat's Day

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. —(AP)— At the age of 86 when most men are wheel-chair cases, Connie Mack sits in the Philadelphia Athletics' dugout and talks about one more pennant.

If an Irishman can't be optimistic on St. Patrick's Day then life isn't worth living. Mr. Mack is both Irish and optimistic starting his 49th season as manager of the A's.

"At first I thought Cleveland had it clinched but I changed my mind," said Mack ,in his annual second guess, "I think we have a chance along with New York and Boston. Cleveland has to win again to prove that it's a good team.

"Our club is about the same. Good defense but we don't hit. Our pitching is fine. I never saw an infield that could throw as good as ours.

"The main change is reserves. Injuries hurt us last year when we surprised you fellows. Sam Chapman was out a month. Elmer Valo was out two different times. Then when Eddie Joost hurt his hand in August we were done for. Now we have Wally Moses and Taft Wright to fill in as outfield reserves and pinch hitters."

The A's were generally overlooked last spring.

Badminton Tonight

The badminton phase of the Girls' Recreation program will be organized at a meeting of the girls set for 7:30 p. m. tonight at Johnny Appleseed junior high gym. Regular leagues will be organized by Mrs. Virginia Kirby, director.

Hoppe Wins Easily

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Willie Hoppe scored two easy victories yesterday to take a six-block three-cushion billard match from Joe Chamaco. 296 to 213.

Elementary Cage Tourney Set For 8 Games Today

The Grade school basketball tournament is set for its biggest day today with eight games on the card. Six games will be played this afternoon and two tonight.

Four reserve games will be played this afternoon. Bushnell will battle Bowman at 3:30 and West Fifth will play Rebecca Grubaugh at 4 p. m. at John Simpson while at Appleseed Hedges takes on Woodland and Prospect meets Brinkerhoff.

Brinkerhoff, undefeated tourney favorite swings, into second round action in the varsity division at 4:30 against Hedges on the Appleseed floor. Prospect meets Woodland at 5 p. m. at the same site.

Tonight's play will be at Simpson with the Bushnell varsity meeting Bowman and West Fifth tackling Rebecca Grubaugh.

Newman and Roseland completed first round play yesterday with Newman winning the varisty tilt, 16-9 and Roseland taking the reserve game 8-2.

Keeps Trying

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. —(INS)— Promoter Sam Becker will carry his battle to land a world champion match between Jersey Joe Walcutt and Ezzard Charles for Cincinnati for a Chicago meeting March 23.
